

Junipero Serra high school, 14830 South Van Ness, Gardena, will hold their annual Barbecue Dinner and Fiesta on the school grounds, Saturday and Sunday, April 21 and 22. Dinner will be served on Sunday from 12:30 to 6:30 p.m. There will be food booths, game booths, entertainment of all kinds for all ages, and rides for children, Mrs. Helen Mayer announced. A staff of "baby sitters" will be on hand to take care of smaller children without charge to permit mothers and dads freedom to join in the fun, she said. Many will be dressed in costumes to help make this a gala occasion, Mrs. Mayer concluded.

Democrats Pay Honor To Senator

Members and friends of the Torrance Democratic club, held a gala box supper and dance in honor of State Senator Richard Richards, recently at the Oil Workers Hall in Long Beach.

Tom Carvey was presented to speak for Senator Richards who could not be present because of a former commitment.

Edward Shedlock spoke on party issues. Democrat "Doc" Roy Sanderson auctioned off the boxes and addressed the audience in a brief speech. He asked for full support in his coming campaign. He is running for County Supervisor of the fourth district.

At the last regular meeting of the Torrance Democrats, Inc., the club unanimously voted to go on record as officially endorsing Roy Sanderson for County Supervisor of the fourth district.

Vandalism

A total of 600 feet of top rail had been torn down and bent and 300 feet of chain link fence were torn down and driven over with cars at North high school, it was reported Friday by Jack McDade, superintendent of the Pacific Fence co.

Original plays written, produced, and acted by the drama students will make their first local appearance and will be judged by noted theatrical professionals.

Rosemary De Camp and Shultzie of the Bob Cummings television show will discuss the plays and present the author's award during a critique session following the performance.

The performance and the critique are open to the public. Tickets will be available at the door.

Three original one-act plays will be given this year. "Change of Heart" is the work of Jim Weyant, Torrance high sophomore. The other two shows, "The Clock" and "150 Years to Learn," have been written by Tom Quaggin, Torrance high junior.

Although this will be the first time that the "Clock" has been presented in Torrance, it has played in Pasadena in the recent one-act play festival there

The cast of "150 Years to Learn" will feature: Eddie Shaw, Alice Mewborn, Diane Cook, Richard Brentwood, Berta Rogan, Bob Hanks, and Howard Mathews.

"Roles in 'Change of Heart' will be taken by: Claudia Smith, Jerry Garver, Jean Woodall, Steve Smith, Georgia Sanford, and Allie Lessin.

The National Thespian society, troupe 1133, is in charge of the presentation. Eddie Shaw, president, is student director for the production. Von Hershey, head of the Torrance high drama department, is the faculty director.

Technical staff includes: Pat Bernhardt, Judy Stolley, Claudia Smith, Gary McEwen, Ted Kibbler, Bruce Pierce, Clyde Penham, and Janice Cook.
