Hillside PTA Sees 'Moms In Aprons'

"Moms in Aprons," a humorous skit written by Mrs. Irene Allison of the Evelyn Carr school, was presented for the recent Hillside PTA meeting.

Showing the lives of mothers active in PTA work, the skits included the mother who liked gardening, the glamorous mom, and even the mother who has gained a few pounds.

The audience enjoyed the narration by Mrs. W. E. Inman, as well as the way the mothers dressed for their parts, Mrs. Glenn Karhu reported.

In the skits were: Mrs. Robert Trimble, Marilyn Mennes, Martha Shortes, Betty Carrell, Polly Buritsch, Terry Boyd, Martha Frislee and June Olney.

Following the theme of the meeting, "Parent's Night," a barber-shop quartette of fathers sang several songs. The dads were: Walter Templin, Bob Beight, Gene Inman and Butch Buritsch.

Mrs. M. Dowd, Waleria librarian, spoke of the service available at the library.

Mrs. L. Bate was introduced. She will be in charge of the Parent Education library at each meeting. Two books, "New Ways in Discipline" and "Brothers and Sisters," were available to be checked out. It is planned other books will be added in the future.

Motions carried during the meeting included the purchase of a flag for Bluebirds and Campfire Girls sponsored by the association and the choice of Mrs. Jack Carrell, president-elect, and Mrs. Lucile Inman, current president, to attend the State convention next month.
