

MUSIC SCHOLARSHIPS

Winners of music scholarships include Jack Johnston, wind instruments, Michael Mullen, piano, and Susan Moody, strings.

3 WINNERS OF MUSIC SCHOLARSHIPS TOLD

Winners of the music competition scholarships held at the El Camino campus theater last Saturday include Jack Johnston, wind instruments winner, Michael Mullen, piano, and Susan Moody, string competition winner.

The competitions are sponsored annually by the Youth Band-Artist Concerts association, a branch of the Torrance Area Youth Bands of Torrance.

The voice competition was cancelled this year due to a shortage of applicants in that division.

Each of the winners will appear as guest soloists on the Youth Band's tenth anniversary concert to be held in the Torrance Civic auditorium on Wednesday night, May 23. Each winner will also receive a $100 cash music scholarship.

Jack Johnston of 2760 Gramercy avenue, in Torrance, is a senior at Torrance high school. He performed the Von Weber Clarinet Concertine for his number in the competition.

Michael Mullen of 1517 Post avenue, Torrance, is in his first year at Torrance high school. His selection in the piano division was the first movement of the Beethoven "Pathetique" Sonata.

Miss Susan Moody, a freshman at Redondo Junior high school, lives at 541 South Gertrude in Redondo Beach. She performed the first movement of the Mendelssohn Concerto in E Minor.

Her instructor, Miss Ruth Breyspraak, also taught the violin student who won the string competition the previous year.

There were 26 students in all who competed for the scholarships.

cluding that of advance gifts committeemen and more recently as vice-chairman of the Chest's Central Commerce and Industry solicitation.

Before coming to Torrance he was vice-president and manager of California Bank at Second and Spring in downtown Los Angeles.

Accepting this important assignment, Otsea explained: "This is something one does as a matter of civic responsibility. Each one must do his share."

Brigadoon Opens Tonight At New Campus Theatre

Opening May 10 for a six-night run in the Campus Theater of El Camino College will be "Brigadoon," the first spring musical to be presented in the new 354-seat campus facility. Subsequent performances will be staged on May 11, 12, 17, 18 and 19.

For the first time in college history, a number of roles have been double cast, according to Merl F. Sloan, director of student personnel. Assignment of two performers to a role enables a larger number of students to participate in leading parts and proves valuable in case of illness of performers, the educator noted.

The leading role of Fiona MacLaren has been assigned to Lucille Liberatore and Joe E. Miller. Miss Liberatore will play on May 11, 17, and 19. Melva Grantham and Sandra Yates contact the role of Meg Brockie, with Mrs. Grantham playing on May 11, 12, 18 and 19.

Ronald DeRosier and Hal Jones play the role of Charlie Dalrymple, with DeRosier taking the stage on May 11, 12, and 18.

Leading male roles of Tommy Albright and Jeff Douglas will be played by Ralph Chapline and Robert Click, respectively.

Other roles and players are Archie Beaton, Michael McGregor, Harry Beaton, Ben Ybarra, Fishmonger, Pat Dawson; Angus MacGuffie, Roland Short; Andrew MacLaren,

In addition to the principals, 19 dancers, 33 members of the chorus, and instrumentalists will appear in the production.

Instructing students in the performance are Dr. R. Gordon Orme, R. Neil Hill, Hamilton M. Maddaford, Burnett Ferguson, and Les Thomas.

All performers are enrolled in college classes. Chapline, who recently presented a program of "Shakespeare" at Hawthorne high school, was the lead in the 1955 production of "Allegro."

Because the seating capacity of the beautiful new Campus Theater is limited, six performances have been arranged, instead of the usual two. The frequency of performance also enables students to enjoy a realistic theatrical situation, college officials indicated.

Tickets are now on sale at the campus student store.

J. M. Ogborn Takes Over Homeowners

Hollywood Riviera Homeowners association held their regular monthly meeting Monday, May 7, at 8 p.m. at the Riviera school.

J. M. Ogborn will take over as president of the organization for the balance of this year.

Robert Jahn, elected president, resigned effective this month. He felt he could not do justice to the two positions of president of the Homeowners association and city councilman, he said.

Homeowners board of directors appointed William Barclay to fill the position of vice-presi-

All residents of the area are urged to attend this meeting as there are several important matters on the agenda, Ogborn said.

One side of the street parking proposal is being presented to the city council; there will be a detailed report on the status of sewers in District 2; and discussion of adequate fire and police personnel.
