

East to Meet West In Styles Tonight

The Women's Auxiliary of St. Andrew's Episcopal church is presenting a spring fashion show this evening at 8 p.m. in the St. Andrew's Guild Hall at 1432 Engracia.

The theme of the show will be "East Meets West in Fashion" with Oriental decorations being used.

The fashions will include children's, teen's and also the latest in women's clothes.

The clothing will be furnished by The Gay Shop and Neta's Tots and Teens.

The show will be narrated by Mrs. John Gethoefer.

Models will include: Gregory Barker, Tammy Goddard, Mary Ann Percy, Judy Gethoefer, Virginia Krauszer, Miss Diane St. Martin, Miss Patricia Travis, Mrs. Howard Percy, Mrs. Joe Penn, Mrs. R. Richard Eakin, Mrs. George Booth and Mrs. Clarence Andrews.

There will be refreshments, door prizes and favors for each guest.

Tickets may be obtained at the door.

THERE IS but one failure, and that is, not to be true to the very best one knows.

Iris Maurer Weds James Scheibeler

Rivaling the sunlight's glow and lovelier than the most perfect rose was Miss Iris Alora Maurer when she became the bride of James Lee Scheibeler in a charming garden wedding on Sunday, May 20.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Joseph D. Maurer of 17419 Elgar avenue. The groom is the son of Commander and Mrs. O. L. Scheibeler of 2203 Arlington avenue.

Reverend C. Scott performed the afternoon ceremony which was held at the La Venta Inn. The bride was enchanting in a gown of snowflake lace and misty tulle over gleaming tafeta. A demure long-sleeved Empire jacket of lace covered the bodice of the strapless gown. The ballerina-length skirt billowed out from the tiny waist over a whirl of petticoats. Her veil of bridal illusion fell from a tiny pearl encrusted head-dress. She carried a white prayer book centered with a white orchid.

The bride was given in marriage by Allen McPherson, a close friend of the family.

Attendants

Miss Marilyn Powell was the maid of honor. Miss Hazel Jean McPherson and Mrs. Arthur L. Abbate, the bride's sister, served as attendants. They were lovely in bouffant gowns of delicate pastel shades.

Miss Diane Ruth Bloedel was the flower girl in a frock of pink nylon trimmed with pink lace.

man; and the ushers were Ray Luddy and Jack Stassin.

Terry Lee Lackey was the ring bearer for the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Maurer was lovely in a yellow and avocado silk suit dress with a yellow linen jacket. Mrs. Scheibeler was charming in an aqua linen suit dress trimmed in white angora.

The reception was held at the Inn immediately following the ceremony.

The couple left on a wedding trip to the Grand Canyon. Both the bride and the groom are graduates of Torrance high school.

The bride was a member of the G. A. A., Torrette Y-Teens, and advertising manager of the Torrance News Torch.

The groom was a member of the Ambassadors Car club and the driving club. He is now associated with the Duschak's Helicopter Rotor Service, Inc.

Upon their return, the young couple will be at home at 2203 Arlington avenue.
