Bridal Beauty

Mrs. Douglas Miller Harris, the former Miss Donna Cordelle Reekers. Portrait by Seeman.

Donna C. Reekers Weds D. M. Harris

Lovely as a shining star and unforgettable as a lullaby, was Miss Donna Cordelle Reekers when she became the bride of Douglas Miller Harris on Sunday, May 27, at the Methodist Wayside Chapel.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Art Reekers of 25105 Pennsylvania ave., Lomita. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Mansel Harris of 1528 West 220th st., Torrance.

Reverend Howard Rosine performed the afternoon ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of frost white lace and tulle over gleaming taffeta. The short-sleeved lace bodice styled in Empire lines widened into a bouffant ballerina length skirt with tiers of frothy tulle ruffles. Tiny iridescent sequins and seed pearls shimmered on the bridal crown which held her fingertip veil of misty tulle.

She carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations and stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

Miss Alice Carpenter, the maid of honor, wore a ballerina length gown of orchid net over taffeta, topped with a short jacket. She wore orchid accessories and carried a bouquet of shadow pink carnations.

Groomsman Daryel Schorr served the groom as best man. James Laven and William Clark, brother-in-law of the groom; were the ushers.

William Turman, soloist, sang "Walk Hand in Hand With Me," "Oh, Promise Me," and "The Lord's Prayer." The organist was Mrs. Malcolm.

Graceful baskets of white gladioli and white stock looped with great satin ribbons decorated the church. The wedding bouquets and the floral arrangements were the creations of Flowers by Marvin.

Mrs. Reekers was lovely in a pink brocaded taffeta sheath gown styled in Empire lines. Mrs. Harris was charming in a

"WHY WE SHOULD ATTEND CHURCH"

One of the highest privileges of the man who has been called into the ministry is through the life which he lives and the words he speaks, to be a witness for his Divine friend, Jesus Christ.

Jesus came into the world to be Saviour and friend to all men, but most of us are not conscious of His love for us, until we read about Him in the Bible and prayerfully meditate upon His words. Believing in Him one discovers the faith that knows God and the Love which Christ came to reveal to humanity.

REV. WALTER M. STANTON

A most satisfying experience in life is to know the love of a true friend. The proverbs state that "to have friends one must prove himself to be friendly, and there is a friend who sticketh closer than a brother." Jesus told His disciples He "did not call them servants but friends" and proved His love for them and for us by laying down His life.

Jesus is a friend to the little children. They are the particular recipients of His love and care. He said "... To such belong the Kingdom of God."

Jesus is a friend to the young. He understands them when they do not yet understand themselves. He desires to share His life with Jesus is a friend to the aged. He comforts them in their sufferings and in their sorrows. He upholds them in their hours of sickness and loneliness, and when, at last, the spirit leaves the frail, ageing body. He promises to receive them into everlasting habitations.

The disciples were proud to be His witnesses. Everyone who knows Him should be too. I am proud to identify myself with His disciples, called to be a witness to the saving grace of my Lord Jesus Christ.
