McMASTER ACTIVITIES SCHEDULED

Current schedule of supervised activity at McMaster park was announced by the Torrance Recreation department today.

Area directors, Les Breitenfeldt or James Jackson are on duty every day between the hours of 1 p.m. to 10 p.m.

For program plans for the area the public may contact the directors.

Opening announcement of an adult art class in pastels at McMaster building is next on the agenda.

A small fee will be charged for each of the six classes which will begin soon on Tuesday evenings from 7 to 10 p.m. This fee covers the cost of one sheet of pastel paper for each class, and the use of some pastels. The instructor will be J. Tower, who studied at the Cleveland art institute and Western Reserve university.

Burglars Nabbed In The Act

Two men charged with burglary were caught in the act by two alert Torrance police officers Friday.

Coming up for their preliminary hearing today on one count of burglary each are Frank J. Sandrene, 37, an aircraft worker, of 17523 Glenburn, and Richard V. Carpenter, 19, also an aircraft worker, of 1310 West 221st street.

"Don't shoot, you've got us," Sandrene said when Sgt. Robert Wright and Officer Jim Kirby became suspicious while on routine patrol and checked over the Torrance Medical Group, 2211 Torrance boulevard.

The two suspects had forced the outside door and were working on the inner glass door to the main offices.

A number of burglar tools were found in the suspects' car.

CofC Starts Drive For Members

Prospective members of the Torrance Chamber of Commerce are now receiving a series of cards explaining the functions of the organization, according to John A. Ebbinghouse, president.

The cards carry amusing cartoons by Dave Morrah, nationally known humorist and cartoonist. Morrah's work has appeared in a number of America's greatest magazines, including Saturday Evening Post, American Magazine and the American Legion magazine.

Membership committee chairman Arthur O. Otsea said: "We are pleased to obtain this series of cartoons from Mr. Morrah. They are amusing but at the same time bring attention to the fact that support will help the Chamber do a better job for Torrance."

The theme of the campaign is "We'll Get More Done If We Get Together." One of the cards points out: "Your Chamber of Commerce has a comprehensive program for the betterment of our community. We will be able to do the job better with your support. Let's get together."
