

PROTEST WALK-OUT

Fellow workers of inspectors Alfonso Duarte of Hermosa Beach and Cecil Neely, 2157 245th st., Lomita, walked out at American Radiator and Standard last week as a protest against the firing of the two men. The two inspectors claimed that infringement on their seniority led to their firing. Following negotiations with officials of the International Brotherhood of Operative Potters, Local 218, the firm reinstated the men.—Press Photo.

BULLDOZED

Bulldozed by Dude Martin is Bill Ash, manager of the new Inglewood Hadley's Furniture Store, while Fiddlin' Kate plays, "I'm Gonna Make Inglewood My Home." It's all in fun, of course, and a rehearsal for store opening festivities on Friday, June 15. Kate and Dude with other personalities of the Town Hall television show will appear in person Saturday night.

New Hadley Store Plans Gala Opening

Another in the huge chain of Hadley Furniture Stores opens tomorrow, Friday, June 15, in Inglewood, with a celebration scheduled to be telecast remote over Station KTTV.

The new store at 3215 West Manchester, near Crenshaw, will be under management of Bill Ash, formerly of Long Beach.

This is the eighth store of the Hadley group. It provides 20,000 square feet of space on a single floor and balcony, mechanized warehouse facilities, and a huge parking lot. Fifteen employees will serve the Inglewood, Hawthorne, Torrance and other southwest areas.

In true western style, Hadley's will open its store with a jamboree of talent from Town Hall, including Dude Martin, Texas Tiny, Fiddlin' Kate, Skeets McDonald, Mary Lou, and other popular television entertainers who will appear in person Saturday night from 9 p.m. to 10:30 p.m.

Refreshments will be served. The new Hadley store will carry a complete line of home furnishings, including floor coverings, appliances, TV, occasional and baby furniture, lamps and modern sectionals.

Among famous brand names are Westinghouse, Philco, Admiral, Emerson, Dumont in TV, International Harvester, Westinghouse and Norge appliances, O'Keefe and Merritt and Wedgewood, Simmons, Alex Smith and Mohawk carpeting, Douglas Berkshire in furniture, and many others.

Store hours will be daily from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. and Sunday from 11 a.m. to 9 p.m.
