HC Eastern L'gue Games

Giants beat the Pirates 5-4 in the Harbor City Eastern Little League, Wednesday, May 30, with Bobby Westfall hitting the home run for the Pirates.

Kenny McIntire was the winning pitcher.

In Saturday's game, the Giants defeated the Dodgers 2-0, winning pitcher being Ronnie Lingren.

While Giacomi and Kretzmar hit home runs for the Cubs, the Pirates defeated them 10-7 in Sunday's game. The Pirates' home run was made by Westfall who was also the winning pitcher.

Results of the remaining games are as follows:

Tuesday, June 5: Pirates 6, Dodgers 2, winning pitcher, Kenny McIntire.

Thursday, June 7: Giants 5, Cubs 1, winning pitcher, Ronnie Lingren.

Saturday, June 9: Pirates 4, Giants 7, home runs made by Kenny McIntire of the Pirates and Ronnie Lingren of the Giants, winning pitcher, Carl Hellstrom.

Sunday, June 10: Dodgers 13,

Recreation Building Ready Soon

Supervisor Kenneth Hahn reported yesterday that the new community recreation building at El Nido park is now nearing completion.

With only a few last minute details and the finish painting yet to be accomplished the $21,000 building should be ready for occupancy in another two weeks.

Supervisor Hahn also stated that a number of items of playground equipment should be installed in the park by the time the building is complete. This will include one six unit swing, two slides and a horizontal ladder.

Cubs 2, home runs by Mickey Cheek and Jim Brown of the Dodgers and Cretchmar of the Cubs; winning pitcher, Mickey Cheek.

Monday, June 11: Giants 4, Dodgers 5, home runs made by Ronnie Lingren, winning pitcher, Clark Ritchie.

NHS Radio Signing Off

The end of the school year is here and KNHS, the voice of North high, the radio station on the Saxon campus, has officially signed off the air.

This activity was sponsored by T. Jones, Ken Weeks, Larry Lutz, Mike Schneider, Don Myers, Ray Davis, and Gary Ledwidge compose the crew who operate, engineer, and produce the shows that came to the student body on this station both at lunch and snack time.

When this station was founded at the beginning of the last semester the boys were broadcasting from one of the janitor's rooms. They also had only one amplifier. Through the efforts of the administration and the crew they obtained

Minor League Opens Season

The National Minor League opened its season with a double header May 30 on newly completed Kettlerfield at 241st and Walnut. The concession stand did a volume business of 160 hot dogs and 200 soft drinks, with Cub Mothers doing the serving.

A half-mile long parade preceded Saturday's game. Game time is 6 p.m. Monday through Thursday; Saturday, double header, 1 p.m.; Sunday, double header, 2 p.m.

a loud speaker for every wing on the campus.

The next and last job for this year will be to run the public address system for commencement. KNHS members are hoping to run the station again next year.
