Saxon... High... Lights

By BONNIE WILLIAMS FR. 2-4623

Bonnie Williams, The Junior-Senior Prom held last Friday night at the Mayflower ballroom decorated in an oriental manner was described by all as a beautiful dream come true. Reigning over the ball as emperor and empress were Gene Damlier and Arlene Lesar. Congratulations to the junior class for a terrific job. Also a big thanks to the faculty members who helped with the planning, decorating and chaperoning.

Baccalaureate Services
Baccalaureate service was held last Sunday afternoon at the Torrance high school auditorium for the seniors and their guests. The auditorium was filled almost to capacity as the seniors marched in to a processional march played by the Saxon band under the direction of J. M. Baum. The Baccalaureate address was delivered by Reverend Hugh Percy of the St. Andrews Episcopal church. The choir and girls' glee club under the direction of George Zavislan sang "Let Us Praise God." The invocation was offered by Reverend Freeman Brunson and the benediction by Reverend Donald Shelby. Beth Ladd, senior class president, gave the introduction.

Senior Aud Call
The senior aud call was presented last Friday afternoon on the quad and the senior will be read at this time. The new senior jackets and sweaters were also displayed. Beth Ladd, as senior class president, presented the deed to the senior patio and the senior privileges to Sandy Ford, the senior class president for next year.

Newspaper Staffers
New North Wind Staffers for next year will be editor-in-chief, Vickie Almeida; managing editor, Leila Santor; news editor, Bonnie Williams; feature editor, Rozann Wills; activities editor, Norma Mercer; sports editor, Richard Komonyi; photography editor, Gerald Reynolds; proof and copy editor, Elaine Washeleski; and typist, Judy Buffenbarger.

Banquets and Awards
The Saxon band held its banquet at Rands Round-up last Wednesday night. The North Wind staff held its banquet two weeks ago and those presented with awards were: editor-in-chief Ann Rutledge, Bonnie Williams and Leila Santor for the most outstanding journalists; Rozann Wills and Gerald Reynolds for the most promising journalists. Advisor Mr. Smith was presented with a tie clip with North Wind engraved on it and a pair of cuff links engraved with his initials.

Snoopin' Around
A banquet for the old and the new members of the student council was held at Rands Round-up last Tuesday evening. Commencement will be held tonight on the quad and music will be provided by the Saxon band and orchestra. Pat Webb was hostess at a party last Friday night held before the prom for those attending. Margo Doxakus had her party after the prom and lasted into the wee hours of the morning. This wise hostess served her guests a welcomed breakfast.

The all night party will be held tonight after graduation for seniors and their guests. North High's annual, the '56 Valiant in the senior colors of coral and gray turned out the best of any annual I have seen. Many thanks go to the annual staff for a terrific job. I plan to continue this column during the summer, twice a month. So please telephone in your information by calling me.

CHURCH SLATES OUTING TONITE

The Faith Christian Assembly, Assembly of God church, located at 18015 So. Prairie Ave. in North Torrance, plans a fellowship outing, to be held at the Torrance park, tonight, June 21 at 6 p.m. Old fashioned ice cream freezing will head the menu. Another event will take place at Faith Christian Assembly this coming Saturday, June 23, as 15 teenagers scramble for their San Bernardino mountain resort, for a week of sports, and spiritual guidance. Let Torrance Press classified ads do your work for you. Call FA. 8-2345.
