DEAR EDITOR....

For Little League, But... Editor, Torrance Press

In regard to Little League, I like Little League. I think it is a grand idea, to help our boys get this training in teamwork, taking directions, fellowship, sportsmanship and baseball.

Besides baseball, I believe, you have in mind the program of keeping these youngsters off the streets, wandering aimlessly with nothing to do—to teach them to get along with their fellowman, working together and being good sports, no matter the outcome.

Your team managers and coaches do give a lot of time, for which they should be congratulated for, we know their lives as everyones, are filled to the brim. They are giving out of love and for the joy of blessing to their hearts as well as the boys, for as it is written in Chapter 13 of 1st Corinthians; to give without love availeth nothing.

However, I do have one suggestion for the true success of Little League, in all departments. I believe the answer to every problem is found in the Holy Bible.

In Deuteronomy, Chapter 5, Verse 12—"Keep the Sabbath Day to sanctify it, as the Lord thy God hath commanded thee."

Deuteronomy, Chapter 5, Verse 16—"That thy days may be prolonged, and that it may go well with thee, in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee."

Proverbs 1:5—"A wise man will hear and will increase learning."

Proverbs 1:7—"The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom and instructions."

I believe, the basic problem of the Little League is in not keeping the Sabbath holy.

Sincerely,
 (s) Mrs. Maxine Snow

For Little League
 Editor, Torrance Press:
 I am 16 and a junior in high school. I read the article on Little League, and I feel that it was unfair to the boys who play in Little League.

Of course there should be other types of recreation, not all boys can play baseball, but let's give the ones that do a chance.

Little League is anything but "a get-rich scheme and a cheap form of advertising." I was never very good at baseball but to the boys that are, we are obligated to furnish them with all the help we can.

Fifteen hundred dollars is a lot of money, but not to the city of Torrance. More money than that is used each year for a lot more things that the people of Torrance never see.

Competition—of course there should be competition, what is a game without competition? "The children are whipped into near-hysteria," well if they are it is by their own enthusiasm to win. If our boys don't learn teamwork how will they ever learn to be men of strong character? And can you tell me a better way of learning teamwork if when they are young they don't belong to some team?

Well, I am all for Little League and I know a lot more people are, too, but they are afraid to voice their own opinion.

Sincerely yours,
 (s) Fred Martin

Death Be Not Proud
 Editor, Torrance Press:
 In reply to one of your readers, Don Jennings the lines quoted, written by an English poet, John Donne, are from his "Holy Sonnets."

I am enclosing the lines that proceed them. "Death be not proud, though some have called thee mighty and dreadful, for whom thou think'st thou dost overthrow. Die not, poor death, nor yet canst thou kill me. One short sleep past, we wake eternal, and death shall be no more; death thou shalt die."

By JOHN DONNE from his "Holy Sonnets,"
 Your sincerely,
 (s) Mrs. L. McFarland
