Bride-Elect Honored at Bridal Shower

Miss Maureen McGarry, who will be married to Lawrence Stone in September, was complimented at a bridal shower on Sunday, July 1. Mrs. Ray N. Olsen was hostess for the afternoon in the Lomita Pines home of her mother, Mrs. Sylvan Smith.

A white paper swan, atop a large white cake, was the table centerpiece, and a white and pink theme was used in decorating.

Games were played, after which the honoree was presented with a shower of miscellaneous gifts. Refreshments, carrying out the party colors, were served.

Invited guests were Mesdames Claude Creasey, Marcel Demonet, Stephen Dodge, Melvin Foucannon, Bob Gallagher, Jim Loughrey, David McDonnell, Edward McGarry, John Salazar, Howard Shirley, and Misses Ann McGarry and Faye Jean Smith.

Sending gifts but unable to attend were Mesdames Olaf Baker, Carroll Coykendall, Tom Judge, Paulus Stone, and Miss Sandra Stone.

The couple will be married in Nativity Catholic church on September 1.

New Officers Installed

Participating in installation ceremonies recently at the Moose hall in Torrance, were the following women of Moose chapter 44: seated, Mesdames Marguerite Baudin, Leona Shiffer, senior regent; Peggy Peacock, and Cora Hill. Standing: Gladys Greip, Ethel Ramsey, Joyce Clay, Gay Romersheuser, Lorraine Walker, Esther Lambrigger, Charmagne Hobbs and Jay McCune.

Colorful Ceremony Installs Women Of Moose In Office

Lovely spring flowers and gaily decorated oriental fans complimented the varicolored gowns worn by the women of Moose chapter 44, at their recent installation at the Moose hall, 1744 W. Carson st.

The escort team, composed of Mesdames Virginia Olson, Alice Swanson, Lucilla Johnson and Velma Scanlon, together with brother Moose Carl Fisher, William Olson, James McCune and William Greip, escorted the new officers to their stations.

Installing officers were Mesdames Vickie Stiles, Billie Helman, Elsie Smith, Joyce Clay and Lucille Meyers.

Newly installed were Mesdames Leona Shiffer, senior regent; Edna Harbison, junior regent; Joyce Clay, recorder; Lorraine Walker, treasurer; Marguerite Baudin; chaplain; Peggy Peacock, junior graduate regent; Esther Lambrigger, pianist; Gladys Greip, guide; Joy McCune, assistant guide; Gay Romersheuser, sentinel; and Charmagne Hobbs, argus.

A Moose ring was presented to the outgoing senior regent, Peggy Peacock, and a lovely bouquet of red roses was presented to the new senior regent, Leona Shiffer, by her husband.

Peggy Peacock then presented a check to the men, in the name of the women of chapter 44, toward the purchase of a garbage disposal for the Moose hall.

Refreshments and dancing followed the colorful installation ceremonies, which were witnessed by many co-workers and guests.

First Meeting of New Term Held by 33rd District PTA

The 33rd district, California Congress of the PTA, held its first meeting of the 1956-57 term recently at the El Rancho high school, Hollywood Riviera. At this session, two appointive officers and 40 chairmen were ratified.

Mrs. Everett M. Findlay, district president of Long Beach, presided over the all-day meeting when the '56-'57 budget was adopted, plans for the district conferences were made, and representatives of the district to various other organizations appointed.

Appointed as corresponding secretary was Mrs. M. L. Sellers of Hawthorne, and ratified as parliamentarian was Mrs. C. F. Rees of Inglewood.

Present from Torrance were: Mesdames Francis Stoedle, Council president; W. E. Inman, second vice-president; A. B. Cowie, chairman of nutrition and school lunch committee; Vernon Terry, newsette chairman; and W. A. Wright, editor of the Crescent Courier.

Those chairmen of standing committees residing in the local area included: Hospitality department, Mrs. Edward G. Kemp, Hermosa beach, director; Mrs. David S. Forsyth, Manhattan beach, hospitality; membership, Mrs. William Bailey, Palos Verdes; civilian protection, Mrs. Miles Kennedy, El Segundo; Mrs. L. O. Andersen, Hawthorne, home reading, and library service, Mrs. John Smith, Hawthorne.

Upon recommendation of the council presidents it was decided to change the fall conference from a workshop for local unit

Mrs. C. Herren Installed President of JayCettes

The Palos Verdes Country club last Saturday night was the scene of installation of officers for the Torrance JayCettes. Taking over the reins from outgoing president, Mrs. Fred Hansen, was Mrs. Charles Herren, incoming president.

Other officers installed were: Mesdames John Mangan, vice president; Keith Pischel, secretary; Mike Goetsch, treasurer; William Sturgis, liaison director; and Al Klein and Howard Percy, directors.

Approximately 200 people attended the joint installation ceremonies of the JayCettes and the Junior Chamber of Commerce officers, Phil Knox, state president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, acted as installing officer for both groups.

During the ceremonies, Mrs. Herren presented past president pins to Mesdames Fred Hansen, Ed Karlow, Jack Baldwin, Gordon Jones, and saved one for Mrs. Howard Percy, who was not present.

Following the dinner and installation, music was provided by Johnny Parson's orchestra for dancing the remainder of the evening.

The JayCettes will hold their first general meeting of the new season on Tuesday, July 17, 7:30 p.m. at Iron's Cottage in Redondo beach. It will be a dinner meeting.

Mrs. C. Herren A charming bride was Miss Selma Jeanette Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Warren, when she became the wife of Bobby Dean Gravett at the Western Ave. Baptist church on June 23.

Patio Dances Planned by Civic Group

A series of Patio Dances sponsored by the Southwest Park civic association will begin Friday, July 6, at the Carl Steele school.

These Community Dances are for both the adults and young people of the Southwest Park area; there will be no charge for admission to the dances, and the music will be from phonograph records. A small charge will be made on refreshments. Starting time for the dances is 7:30 p.m. and ending time is 10 p.m.

Parents Attend Troop Meeting

Averill park in San Pedro recently was the scene of the Flyup of Girl Scout Troop No. 635. Over 70 people met at the reserved place.

Mrs. Ruth Planz gave the Brownie Wings to the girls. The leaders, Mesdames Harold Hayes and Wm. Breaker gave the new scouts their pins, after which they had ice cream, cookies, and punch.

Whittier council served as hostess to the meeting and Long Beach council will host the July 23 meeting to be held at the B. F. Tucker school. Torrance council PTA will host at the February meeting.

YWCA Offers Bus Ride to Art Festival

If enough interest is shown, the YWCA will charter a bus for those wishing transportation to the Festival of Arts at Laguna on Wednesday, July 25.

As this is being done as a public service, those wishing to avail themselves of this opportunity to travel to Laguna by bus need not be members of the association. It will be necessary, however, for the fare to be paid in advance to be assured a place. If for any reason the trip is cancelled, the fare will be returned. Sign ups should be made immediately so that plans for the trip may be completed.

Because there are a number of prices for tickets for the Festival, the YWCA will not make arrangements for tickets. The only thing being arranged by the YW is transportation. Therefore each person reserving a place on the bus must make his or her own ticket arrangements. The bus will leave the headquarters building of the YWCA, 437 W. Ninth st., San Pedro, at 6 p.m.

Brownies of Three Troops Enjoy Outing

A busload of 45 Brownies and adults recently took a trip to Aventura, the Girl Scout camp in Glendora.

The girls who met at 1115 Hickory, home of Mrs. Wm. Marleau, went by bus to the gate of the camp, then hiked into the camp where they saw the recently completed troop campsite.

The group had a picnic lunch prior to returning home. Represented were Brownie troops Number 566, Number 707, and Number 532, who were under the leadership of Mesdames Ruth Wall, Mildred McDade and M. Marleau.

Brownies from the 532 group have a summer project of saving cigar boxes for the TB ward at the Harbor General hospital.
