Toastmasters
Club Adds
2 Members

Tuesday, August 7, will be ice breaking day for Messrs Marvin Brain and Walter Brown the two new members to the Torrance Toastmasters club.

The new members break the ice by giving their autobiographs as a self introduction to the club, and the toastmasters find this to be the easiest subject for a first speech.

Other formal speakers on the program headed by toastmaster of the evening Richard Barrett will be Joseph Hencel, Ken Mc-Breen and Charlie Smith. Highlighting the dinner meeting on August 7th, will be the "Table Topics" which allow all members to speak briefly on topics of general interest, and keeping them in practice.

The meeting takes place at the Smith Bros. Fish Shanty in Walteria, at 7 p.m. and men desireous of furthering their abilities to express their ideas verbally and would be interested in visiting or joining a toastmasters club are urged to contact the club president, Harold Briggs, by phone DA. 6-2443.

According to Frank Gorbet, the club spokesman, the Torrance club members are planning their annual picnic for some time in the near future, the date not yet disclosed.
