Meantime their daughter Bobby Jo will maintain their home here, and their many friends are happy in the knowledge that they will eventually return to Torrance.

After the opening of the gifts, Mrs. Stewart served refreshments of coffee and cake.

Amaranths Honor Past Jr. Officers

Meeting in Torrance Masonic temple, a record number of members of the Order of Amaranth attended Lomita Court No. 61, Thursday evening, to honor C. Esther Colbert, junior past royal matron and Thaaard Buchholz, junior past royal patron, who occupied the throne, on this special occasion, designed "1955" Night.

Special escort was accorded Royal Matron Gladys Motherwell and Royal Patron Clyde Satterfield and the royal matron, after ascending the throne, welcomed H. L. Colbert, her royal patron and members of her association, stating that it was a pleasure to relinquish the several stations to her and her cohorts.

Dignitaries of supreme council and grand court escorted and presented were, H. L. Lela Bolin, supreme marshal in the east; H. L. Nan King, past grand royal matron; S. K. Thomas Toner, past grand royal patron; S. K. Milo Dellman, past grand royal patron; H. L. Mattie Meyer, assistant grand lecturer and Estella DesJardins, grand representative to the state of Oklahoma.

Especially pleasing to H. L. Colbert and S. K. Buchholz was the honor of presenting from the throne, thirty-six past royal matrons and seventeen past royal patrons being members of the "1955" association.

To conclude a very enjoyable evening, all present retired to the banquet room, where H. L. Dorothy Davis and her committee dispensed refreshments amid lavish decorations.

One of the several events, enjoyed by both the givers and the recipients, was the presentation, to H. L. Tressie and S. K. James Fleming, in celebration of this day, their forty-fifth wedding anniversary, of a huge wedding cake, by H. L. Colbert and S. K. Buchholz, especially because H. L. and S. K. Fleming were royal matron and royal patron in the year 1955.
