Torrance Coordinating Council Meets Tonight

Torrance Coordinating Council will meet tonight, Thursday, September 6, from 7:30 to 9 in the new Torrance City Hall, room 19, (Torrance Blvd., and Maple).
 Torrance Coordinating Council is one of 99 Coordinating Councils operating in Los Angeles county. The Community Coordinating Council movement is synonymous with a modern town meeting.
 It is a means through which a community discovers and meets its needs, it was stated. It provides the common ground on which citizens, professional skill, and administrative authority meet to achieve action.
 A Community Coordinating Council is not "just another organization," it was emphasized. It is a cooperative process which makes possible many community accomplishments
