

DEAR EDITOR....

Editor, Torrance Press. Isn't it time to change the name of this place to LOWmita? Last week at the regular meeting of the Chamber of Commerce a hired promoter of incorporation was permitted to call reputable 'people 'liars' after they had been placed under a "gas" rule.

the brakeman calling U re' ll ar'. That was all the fun they had on the run. The tracks are gone and the sign has faded. Perhaps the name could be had for Lomita if the people who want to incorporate continue their present trend.

Editor, Torrance Press: I was in Torrance trying to locate an old Army buddy of mine who went through the war with me. I wasn't able to find him. Could you print this letter and maybe he'll get in touch with me. His name is Don McCombs. He and I were in Co. A, 32nd Armored Regiment, 3rd Armored Division.

HOUSE GUEST

Miss Pat Turkman of 1621 Hichory ave., has had as her house guest, Miss Nancy Farrell of La Mirada for the week-end. The week-end was highlighted with a barbecue dinner for the Farrells in the patio of the Turkman residence.

Are You a Good Citizen

Remember to make your vote count. Examine the issues and the candidates. Give time to study party platforms. Inform yourself on the statements of the candidates. Study the past records of the candidates for re-election. Take some part in political life by urging others to vote. Encourage study groups on the chief issues of the day. Register as a member of a political party.

Vote carefully and prayerfully. Open your mind to facts. Try to work with others against curtailment of freedom. Enjoy your rights as a free citizen.

The National Council of United Church Women urges that every citizen be a good citizen and REGISTER and VOTE.

This is a part of our Christian social relations work. Mrs. Floy Cook is the Christian social relations chairman for the Torrance Council of United Church Women.

Mrs. J. B. Mosley serves as president of the Torrance Council which includes churches in the areas of Torrance, Lomita, and Walteria.

Fuchsia Club Celebrates 11th Birthday
