Market Offers Customers Free Ball Point Pen

Nate Adelson, owner of Market Town, 15017 South Crenshaw boulevard, is offering a free ball point pen this week-end to adult readers of The Garden Tribune.

To receive the pen, all that adult customers need do is clip the coupon appearing in the market's display advertisement of this newspaper and present it, or a reasonable facsimile, to any checker at the store and receive a free pen.

Adelson said, "We are looking forward to welcoming many new customers who we invite to receive this free gift. And we are proud of the fact that our customers are able to save two ways at our store. First, by taking advantage of our lower shelf prices and week-end specials, and, second, by collecting and saving S and H Green stamps offered with all merchandise except liquor, cigars, or milk products."

Trading stamps may be redeemed for more than 1500 nationally advertised products for the home, hobby, or favorite sport.

School Stages Paper Drive
