Gladys Moose Wedded In Afternoon Ceremony

In a theme of pink and white church decorations, Gladys M. Moose was betrothed in a double ring ceremony, to Orville E. Pollard, at the First Baptist church. The couple said their vows on September 15, in the afternoon, with Reverend C. M. Northrup and Reverend H. H. Richardson officiating.

The bride looking lovely in a gown of pink lined nylon, and carrying a bouquet of white roses, was given away by one of her closest associates, Robert Watson.

Matron of Honor was Mrs. William Camper of Covina. Serving as best man was Reverend Norman Crider, of San Diego.

Ushers were Reverend Harvey Hobbs, Verlon Carlson and Mickey Lynn.

Mrs. E. M. Pollard, the grooms, mother, looked delight in grey lace over pink.

A reception was held after the wedding in the church Fellowship room.

Miss Moose was educated in North Dakota, and she attended the Eastern State Teacher's college. At present she is the secretary at the First Baptist church.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Pollard, parents of the bridegroom, reside at 111 South Helberta, Redondo Beach.

Orville Pollard, graduated from Redondo high school and attended the Bible Institute of Los Angeles and also Pepperdine college. At present he is employed at the Olive View Sanatorium, Olive View, California.

The couple have made plans to honeymoon for one week in northern California. They will take up residence at 2266 Torrance blvd.

Volunteers For Children Observe 1st Anniversary

Volunteers for Children are now one year old. Commemorating the event was a colorful birthday party held at Harbor General hospital. The highlight of the event was the presentation of the pins to the women who have served in the organization for the past year.

First there was the presentation of the one year service pin given to the women who have served and helped in the organization for a period of one year, and secondly, with the wonderful idea of "much ado" in the way of a lovely lawn party given right on the hospital grounds.

The table was adorned with all the eye-training of an initial one year celebration for these women, who have devoted their time to helping the children in the Harbor General hospital. Bouquets were sent by various clubs and hospital departments.

Also a table laden with delicious cake and coffee, served by the women of the organization who were hosts at the affair.

Mrs. John Stoddard, president of the Volunteers for Children, presided over the affair.

Mrs. Stoddard announced that the organization was created for the sole purpose of trying to give more love and tender care to children whose parents are limited to twice a week visits at the hospital.

Twenty-five women received their one year pin, presented to them by Mrs. Marguerite McAllister, nurse co-ordinator for the Volunteers. Hospital Administrator Al Thomas gave thanks in his speech to these women for the wonderful work that they have been doing.

Mrs. Marion DeBottari, chairman, prepared the table decorations.

The bouquets were sent by the Kiwanis club of Torrance, Manhattan Rotary, Lenore's Florist of Hermosa Beach, the occupational therapy department and the pediatric services of the Harbor General hospital. Mrs. Marguerite McAllister and the administrative offices of the hospital.

CP Center Plans Fashion Show

The Cerebral Palsy center is planning a fall fashion show, on October 12, from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m., at the Torrance YWCA, 2320 W. Carson st.

The fashion show is being planned to help raise needed funds to continue the treatment and training program.

Local merchants are aiding the cause by providing the latest styles for the autumn season. The public is invited and tickets may be purchased by contacting Mrs. Patrick at FA 8-1361.

Pilot Club Enjoys Films Of Europe

The Pilot club of Torrance, at its regular September dinner meeting held at the Fish Shanty had as its guest Mr. and Mrs. Richard S. Willis of Torrance, who presented an unusually interesting program of movies and slides which they took on their three-months tour of Europe last year.

The committee on international relations arranged the program in line with the 1956-57 theme of the international service organization of business and professional women, which is "Service and Understanding—A Bridge to Peace."

Members of the local Pilot club attended the reception at the Hotel Statler in Los Angeles, honoring Mrs. Jean Conacher of Hamilton, Ontario, Canada, president of Pilot international.

THE SUIT THAT CREATES AN AIR OF EASY LIVING

Now is the time for the fall look suit! A delicious, delectable looking suit that can be worn at any time, day or night. Smartness all by itself! A necessary evil in every woman's wardrobe.

And how to go about finding the perfect one for you . . . well, lets make it simple . . . and let me suggest that you go to the Gay shop, located on Sartori avenue . . . and let me suggest again to you to try on one of their Lilli Ann suits.

Pictured is just one of the story type suits, that tells all at just one glance. The suit you see here might well become a classic. It's a sure thing that a Lilli Ann suit will become you, whether your setting is campus, country or city.

For those that like the nipped-in-waistline and the bouffant hipline, rippling all around, swept beautifully from front to back, should try this Lilli Ann creation. The collar can be turned up or down, worn with the sophisticated low neckline, or try inserting a chiffon scarf, for the added touch of softness. And of course the jacket is lined to perfection.

Narrow it down to the slim-pencil lined skirt, that's just made to fit, because of the proper detailing and the half-lined skirt to give added smoothness.

It's a lovely, willowy look, the smart girl's fall look, created from a mixture of wool, nylon and the seal fur blend look in twilight black.

Add your favorite stole, or a fur blend cloche. It's simply a matter of taste!

It's more than a suit, it's a fashionable way of life, created by Lilli Ann—just for you.

If you have any fashion problems or if you would like to know where to find certain styles that you are looking for, call or write to the Torrance Press, 1406 Cravens ave., FA. 8-2345, attention Norma Mattauch, women's editor.
