Fireladies to Hold Election Of Officers

Torrance Fireladies announce that their next meeting will be held October 1, at the home of Mrs. James Wass, 3252 Winlock rd., at which time new officers for the coming year will be elected.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter West and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Martin represented the Torrance Fire Department and Fireladies auxiliary as delegates and alternate delegates at the California State Firemen's Association annual conference held at Ukiah, California.

The theme of the conference was western. The two couples participated in a parade by riding in an open convertible with the delegates from Redondo Beach.

At the dinner dance, Mrs. Walter West was awarded a trophy for the most authentic woman's western costume worn at the barbecue on the previous day.

The last meeting of the Torrance Fireladies was held at Higgins Patio. The wives of new firemen were honored guests at a get acquainted social.

'BON VOYAGE' THEME SETS FASHION NOTES

The "Bon Voyage" of fashions will be the introductory theme for the fashion show Thursday night, being sponsored by the Catholic Daughters of America. A fly-away session will be in order when you approach the entrance of the hall, featuring an air-line hostess, who will ask you your choice of flight, TWA or American Airlines, and from that point on you will feel like your being whisked away on their Airline Fashion Tour.

The fall fashions being featured are from Sam Levy's Department store, located on Sartori avenue. Fashions for women, misses, and teen-agers, will be shown. Fashions for the younger children are from Guy's & Dolls Childrens shop on El Prado avenue.

A peek-a-boo description of some of the fashions to be shown during your flight will be a coat and dress outfit with the empire line motif in lime, to be modeled by Mrs. William Hardesty, a black sheer wool with sheath lines, scooped neckline to be modeled by Mrs. James Fornelli.

Teen-ager Marilyn Revell will model a David Crystal suit, in the new green and navy plaid fabric, nipped in waist and pleated skirt. Susan Getely will show a smart black cotton, jewelled neckline, blousy top, toga skirt which creates an apron effect.

Fashions for the younger set will include many lovely fabrics, such as corduroy, taffetas and the ever loving fall plaids. They will also wear full bouffant skirts with petticoats to match.

Many styles will be shown, styles for every occasion, time and place.

Flight time is 8 p.m., in the Nativity Catholic church hall, on Engracia avenue.

Tickets are being sold by CDA members or tickets maybe obtained at the door. The public is invited.

JayCettes See Film on 'Narcotics'

Lt. D. C. Cook and Sgt. G. R. Rethwisch of the Torrance Police dept., were guest speakers at the recent JayCette monthly meeting held at a Lomita restaurant. Their topic "Narcotics" which included a film and general discussion highlighted the business meeting presided over by president Mrs. Charles Herren.

Lt. Cook informed the women that "in order to stop narcotics" we should educate our own children."

Mrs. Robert Waters, dance chairman stated that October 13 is the date of the cottons and jeans dance which will be held at the American Legion hall.

A white elephant sale will be an attraction at the dance with proceeds going to the club's annual Christmas project.

Hostesses at the dinner were Mrs. Leonard Radford and Mrs. William Russell who used a colorful "Back to school" theme.

Mrs. Dale Stanton won a prize.

Mrs. Leonard Radford was elected to the office of first director due to the resignation of Mrs. Al Kline.

October 9 is next board meeting and will be held at the home of Mrs. Mike Goettsch, 21112 Brighton ave. The general meeting set for October 16 will be at the Chamber of Commerce building at 7:30 p.m.

200 Attend P-TA Council Workshop

Torrance Council California Congress of Parents and Teachers held a workshop for officers and chairmen at the First Baptist church.

Approximately 200 attended the first citywide workshop to familiarize Parent Teacher workers with the duties of their new position in the unit. Represented were the 18 schools of Torrance sitting in one workshop conducted by council officers.

Food for thought was given the audience by Reverend Nathan Harrel-Bond, assistant pastor of the First Baptist church. Dr. J. H. Hull, superintendent of schools and Samuel Waldrup explained the need for the passing of the State Loan Bill and the Override Tax soon to confront the residents at the polls.

Council President Francis Stoeckle conducted a brief business meeting and introduced guests. Miss Barbara Cage sang "Spring is a Lady" and was accompanied by Miss Marilyn Jordan. Both are students of North high school. Council officers also attended

ADULT SQUARE DANCE CLASSES SCHEDULED

Adult square dance classes will begin on Tuesday, September 25, in the Torrance civic auditorium which is located on the corner of El Prado and Cravens.

The classes will be held from 8:10-30 p.m., and will be under the capable direction of that popular and well-known square dance caller, Gerry Reeser. This class will continue through the spring, and will progress from beginning formations through intermediate and advanced steps.

Graduates of this class are welcomed to join the "Cornstompers," a local square dance club which meets twice a month and is also sponsored by the Torrance Recreation Department.

Registration blanks for the beginning class can be obtained at the Recreation Department office, 3031 Torrance boulevard or at the civic auditorium on either September 25 or October 2 during the classes.
