Dinner Will Honor Mayor, Council, City

A dinner honoring Mayor Albert Isen and the City Council, as well as celebrating the 35th anniversary of Torrance's incorporation, will be held November 2 at the Palos Verdes country club.

Sam Levy, one of the noted pioneer leaders of Torrance, will speak. Hollywood entertainers will perform.

Seating capacity is limited to 400 guests. A squab-chicken or lobster dinner will be offered.

The event is being sponsored by the Torrance Citizens Committee. Persons interested in attending may contact one of the following: G. S. (Bill) Evans, Herma Tillim, Dave Tanner, Jim Burke, J. A. Beasley, E. J. Robinson, Tom Abrahms, Chris Sorenson, Ed Nobbie, John Kesson, John Forsythe, Bob Herick, and Gene Pinski.

OLYMPIC EXHIBITION SET HERE

An exhibition match between the U. S. Olympic Water Polo team and the Los Angeles County Life Saving Water Polo team will be held in Torrance's municipal plunge on Sunday, November 4, at 7 p.m., it was announced yesterday.

Three Torrance Beach life guards will appear in the event, which is designed to raise $1090 to send a 10-man county life guard team to the Australian Surf Life Saving Carnival in Melbourne, Australia, November 25 through December 2.

The $1000 will pay for one member of the 10-man team who will represent Torrance.

Tickets for the local event are now on sale and may be purchased through the Torrance Junior Chamber of Commerce, the Torrance Mounted Police and the Recreation Department (located in the city hall).

Contributions for the fund may be sent to: Surf Life Saving Team Fund, c/o Torrance Recreation Committee, 3031 Torrance Blvd., Torrance.

For several years, the County Life Guards team has won all major life saving events on the West Coast. Teams from England, Ceylon, South Africa, Hawaii, New Zealand, and the United States will compete.

TEACHER'S EXAM

Residents of the El Camino college district may fulfill the California Teachers' Credential requirement for passing an examination in the Constitution of the United States by taking the United States Constitution examination at the college.

The test will be offered at 4 p.m. Friday, October 26 in Room 6 of the Social Science building, Dr. William H. Harless, director of instruction, announced.
