At present she is employed at Northrop Aircraft, Inc. Her fiancé, Lt. Peckham, is the son of Mrs. M. A. Peckham, 1013 8th St., Manhattan Beach. He graduated from Loyola University in the spring of 1955 after completing the ROTC Air Force program there. # PAST PRESIDENTS TEA HELD AT WOMAN'S CLUB

Past presidents were honored yesterday by the Torrance Woman's club at a lovely tea set in a fall atmosphere of contrasting brown, deep yellow and bright orange decorations. Mrs. M. A. Bauman and Mrs. W.C. Boswell, co-hostesses, arranged a colorful centerpiece welcoming the honored guests who were, Meses. Charles Stock, John Young, J. M. Fitzhugh, J. S. Lancaster, A. W. Johnson, M. J. Beale, H. C. Barrington, A. H. Silligo, E. A. Miles, C. B. Mitchell, George Morgan, R. R. Smith, Chris Jones, W. I. Laughon, S. V. Rauss, D. L. Sears, B. T. Whitney, B. W. Roberts, A. F. R. Ewalt, Grover C. Van Deventer, H. R. Richards and H. L. Mitchell. Corsages of yellow chrysanthemums tied with a distinctive green bow were made by Mrs. John W. Thuss and Mrs. H. C. Sandberg and pinned on the past presidents. "Perfect Music Set to Noble Words" was the title of the program presented by Mrs. Dean Sears, program chairman, after the business meeting conducted by President Mrs. Lee A. McCoy. Spoken prose and poetry expressing pathos and humor alike were set to a background of artistically chosen piano accompaniment by Miss Charlotte Edwards, dramatist, and Miss Lucille Carr, pianist. They presented a program highlighting a woman's life—the things, the emotions, the people, which make it varied and valued—through especially selected and written material. Miss Edwards, with a baclor of music degree in voice, was former woman's editor of the Rochester (New York) Journal and continuity director of radio station WHEC in Rochester. During the war, while a police reporter and special feature writer for the Dayton (Ohio) Daily News, she started to freelance for magazines. Miss Carr received a master's degree in music from Claremont graduate school in 1952 and has appeared before many of California's leading clubs, in Santa Paula, Oxnard, La Crescenta, Los Angeles, Beverly Hills, San Pedro, Long Beach, Alhambra and Pomona. BIG EVERY WAY! Yes, Want Ads find you big lots, big bargains, big savings, and best of all—a big audience!
