Audrey Ann Schmock Marries Robert C. Buckman in Lomita

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Buckman. Harlan Photo.

Miss Audrey Ann Schmock, in a wedding gown of nylon tulle over white taffeta, exchanged vows with Robert C. Buckman in a beautiful double ring ceremony, November 10, at St. Margaret Mary's Catholic church, Lomita Father Patrick Shelley officiated.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Schmock, 2473 W. 253 st., the bride was escorted to the altar banked with pink and white carnations, by her father. Her detailed gown formed a chapel train, and the bodice was exquisitely designed with long pointed sleeves and a high neckline. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a coronet of seed pearls, sequins and lace and she carried a white bouquet of carnations and gardenias.

Bridesmaids Carolyn Buckman, Roselind Schmock, Jo Ann Schmock, and Carolyn Brummeler, preceded the matron of honor in mint green dresses. They carried distinctive bouquets of pink carnations.

Miss Margaret Schmock, matron of honor, and sister of the bride, wore a contrasting coral gown and carried gold carnations. William John Schmock brought the rings to the altar where William Buckman performed the best man duties. Ushers were Roland Buckman, Jack Miller, John Burrows and Leslie Schmock, Jr.

Miss Cathy Buckman, flower girl, preceded the bride to the altar in a chrysolette coral dress and carried a basket of pink carnations. "Ave Marie," the Communion Song, and "On This Day," were sung by Mrs. A. C. Kennedy, accompanied by Mrs. Mary Butterfield at the organ.

Mrs. Schmock chose a navy blue lace taffeta creation with pink accessories to wear at her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Buckman wore a stylish charcoal dress with pink accessories.
