All That Glitters...

Mrs. Robin Lyons and Mrs. Louise Mangan (l-r) throw light on the holiday proceedings as they light candles made by the Jay-Cettes for their Christmas candle sale November 30, 7-9 p.m., in downtown Torrance. All proceeds from the sale will go towards the purchase of a television set for the TB patients at Harbor General hospital. There will be three graduated sizes in various glittering Christmas colors. Orders may be made by calling any of the following committee members: Mmas. Bill Lyons, Mike Goetsch, John Mangan, Chuck Herren, Al Kline or Keith Pischel. A paper drive is also scheduled to raise funds for the project.

Silvester-Nelson Rites Performed at Wayfarer's Chapel

The Wayfarer's Chapel, Portuguese Bend, was the lovely setting for the marriage of Mary Frances Silvester, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nick Silvester, 1303 Amapola ave., to William B. Nelson, Saturday, November 17. The Rev. Kenneth W. Knox officiated.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride was stunning in a gown of white net over taffeta with a bell shaped skirt. The short sleeved bodice with a heart shaped neckline, was exquisitely applied with medallions on chantilly lace. Her fingertip illusion veil fell from a pearl coronet and she carried a white orchid and stephanotis bouquet.

Miss Anne M. Silvester, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor, in a white satin, empire-waistline dress. She carried a distinctive bouquet of pink carnations. Robert Nelson, brother of the groom, carried out best man duties during the single ring ceremony.

Mrs. Nick Silvester wore an elegant toast colored lace outfit with brown accessories. She wore a yellow carnation corsage. Mrs. Myrtle Nelson, Fallbrook, California, chose a contrasting blue dress with black accessories to wear at her son's wedding. Her corsage was of pink carnations.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at 1600 W. Century Blvd., Los Angeles. The couple left for a honeymoon in San Francisco.

The bride attended Ohio schools and the groom was educated in Riverside. He is presently employed at Northrup Aviation, in Anaheim.

SCOUTS SCHEDULE COURT OF HONOR

A Court of Honor will be held November 29, at 8 p.m. at the Fern-Greenwood auditorium by Boy Scout Troop 728 led by Herman Bondman, sixth grade teacher at the Greenwood school. Many scouts will receive honors.

The scouts have been busy preparing for the sale of Christmas trees on a lot which will be located on the corner of Carson street and Crenshaw boulevard and will open December 13. An advanced sale of tickets is in progress. These tickets which can be applied to the purchase of a tree will also entitle the

VARIETY SHOW PRESENTED BY CRENSHAW PTA

The Crenshaw Elementary PTA meeting was held Nov. 7 in the school cafeteria. Mrs. Clint Chapman presided. The flag ceremony was presented by Brownie troop No. 2022 and Mrs. R. Alvarez gave the inspirational.

Mrs. M. Grahame presented a magazine skit called "Magazoo Parade," and Mrs. Don Richards, safety chairman, explained the petition for a screened overhead walkway crossing Crenshaw Blvd. at the school.

Membership chairman, Mrs. James Bramlett, stated that Crenshaw PTA has 466 members. Membership prizes given to the rooms were as follows: Rita Kinnard, first; Joyce Ray, second; and A. Richie, third, for the lower grades. Kenneth Blake, first; Robert MacSpadden, second; and Carol Sharp, third, for the upper grades.

A variety program was presented by Don Robinson. The film, "Boy With a Knife" was shown and the orchestra, under direction of Jerry Andrews, played several numbers. Kenneth Blake's room presented a play entitled, "What Thanksgiving Means to Me." Earl Eckert, principal, played the piano, Edwin Brown, vice principal, played the drums and Jerry Andrews played the bass viol in a trio. One of the songs was composed by Earl Eckert.

Hostesses for the social hour were mothers from the rooms of Carroll Wright, Jean Warner and Jacqueline Hermann.
