RANGERS ELECT

Woodcraft rangers recently held elections and the following rangers were elected: Freddy Walker, chief; Timothy Beets, second chief; Donald Wallace, wampum; Bill Eakins, tally keeper; Del Hinkle, first runner; Steven Green, second runner; and Larry Kettle, fire bearer. Leonard Sawyer and Donald Wilson were appointed runners.

Small Fry Win First Prize

First prize winners in the JayCette paper drive, held last Saturday, were five youngsters who pooled their resources and split the cash award five ways. They are (standing, l-r) Bobbie Edmundson, Gerry Mangan and Gerald Edmundson; (kneeling) Jessie Valenzuela and Tommy Mangan. Proceeds from the drive will go towards the Christmas project, according to Mrs. Bill Lyons, chairman. The first prize winners managed to collect a stack of paper that measured 17 feet high. The wagon contains only a fraction of their total collection.

Lomita PTA Board Meets

The Lomita Elementary PTA board met at the school December 5 after a Christmas luncheon in a local restaurant.

Mrs. Frank Gorbet, president, announced that the Community Chest drive was a success in this area and the PTA was presented with an award for its work. Mrs. Walter Talley, chairman of the paper and rag drive, reported a profit of $94.46.

Two new chairmen were ratified; they were, Mrs. Elbridge Blake, record book chairman, succeeding Mrs. Jay Troxell who resigned, and Mrs. Charles Butler, exceptional children chairman.

DELTA ZETA YULE PARTY

South Bay alumnae of Delta Zeta will meet at the home of Miss Barbara Lemke, 5348 1/2 Village Green, Los Angeles, on Wednesday evening, December 19, for their annual Christmas party. Members brought their favorite goodies for refreshments, together with the recipes for making them and guests exchanged gifts.

At the January meeting Mrs. George Furtado has invited a foreign exchange student from El Camino College, to relate highlights of his experiences here and in his homeland.

All Delta Zetas are looking forward to the Flame Fantasy luncheon at the Beverly Hilton hotel, February 2. The proceeds will go to a camp for diabetic children and a college for the deaf.
