

Course Offered In Food Service and Sanitation

An announcement that a course in "Sanitation for Food Service Personnel" will be held in the Torrance area on February 19, 26, and 28 was released this week by Dr. Roy O. Gilbert, Los Angeles county health officer.

Oil Corporation Employees Will Support Drive

Union employees of the Torrance General Petroleum corp. have voted unanimously to endorse the new Little Company of Mary hospital program and have urged the corporation to participate financially in the $776,000 fund drive.

Bernard M. Dougan, president of Local 1519 of the Oil Chemical Workers International (CIO), said the entire Local membership of the union unanimously adopted a resolution terming the proposed voluntary hospital "a necessary benefit to workers and their families" and urging that General Petroleum management inform union officials not later than January 31 as to the company's intent with regard to financial participation in the program.

Dr. Gilbert noted that employers and employees serving the public, including schools and institutions, recognize that food must be properly selected, prepared and served under sanitary conditions. The Food Handlers' Institutes are one answer to improving this important public service, he said.

There is no registration fee, and the institute consists of three sessions which will be held at the Pier Avenue school, 602-760 Pier ave., Hermosa Beach. Identical sessions will be held in the afternoons from 2 to 4 and in the evenings from 7 to 9.

In addition to professional food handling personnel in the area, numerous members of civic and religious groups who occasionally serve food at their social functions may take the training.

David W. Colfelt, area chief sanitarian, stated that most food poisoning this year has occurred at social gatherings rather than in restaurants, and that the training for members of clubs and church groups is being emphasized for that reason.

Movies, demonstrations, and the classes are sponsored by the Health Department and the South Bay Adult school.

Lectures will be used in the three two-hour sessions to show safe methods in both preparing and serving food to large groups.

Further details about the classes may be obtained by contacting the sanitation bureau, Torrance Health center, FA 183310.

The "people of Union Carbide" include the men and women who operate the Torrance plant of Carbide and Carbon Chemicals Company.

Plastics from the salt of the earth

WITH THE PAINSTAKING care of expert chefs, scientists combine ingredients from salt and natural gas—cook them in huge pressure cookers called autoclaves—and turn out amazing vinyl plastics.

First to use the recipe over 25 years ago, the people of Union Carbide prepare millions of pounds of vinyl plastics each year. They can be blended into materials that ignore scuffing . . . stay young and flexible for years . . . thrive in sunlight or salt water . . . and shrug off liquids known for staining.

As flexible film, vinyls become decorative shower curtains, draperies, protective garment bags, or inflatable toys. Vinyls can be squeezed through a hole—like toothpaste from a tube—to make insulation for wire and cable. Other forms produce wear-resistant flooring, durable upholstery, washable playing cards, unbreakable phonograph records. The list of useful products grows bigger all the time.

With an eye to the future, the people of Union Carbide are still pioneering in this fascinating field. The years to come will see more and better plastics serving in every American home.
