Wins Homemaking Award

Miss Billie Melton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Melton, 1645 Date st., has been named the Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow at Torrance High school. She received the highest score on homemaking knowledge and attitudes in a written examination given to senior girls in the graduating class. Her examination paper will be entered in competition for the state title of All-American Homemaker of Tomorrow and will also be considered for runnerup. Billie loves to cook and sew and is shown here at home ironing one of the colorful dirndl skirts she made recently. —Press Photo

DORNBURG-ESPOSITO MARRIAGE PERFORMED

At the St. Frances Cabrini Catholic church, Los Angeles, Sandra J. Dornburg, daughter of Mrs. LaVada Parenti, 4106 W. 177th st., and Mr. A. L. Dornburg, became Mrs. Victor Esposito on November 24, 1956. The church was beautifully decorated with two large baskets of assorted flowers by the altar and a white isle runner. Rev. Lawrence J. Gibson performed the double ring ceremony.

In an exquisite gown of imported chantilly lace over tulle with a satin lining, the bride was given away in marriage by her father.

The bodice was highlighted by an Italian neckline and long pointed sleeves. She carried a striking bouquet of four dozen white roses and a double orchid corsage.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Kathleen Talkington, and the two attendants Mrs. DaLene Doyle and Miss Marlene Britton, wore identically styled bouffant dresses of contrasting coral, blue and yellow chiffon. They carried pink, blue and yellow carnations. Stephanie Parenti was the flower girl in a coral taffeta dress covered with white embossed nylon.

Richard Doyle, best man, and Richard Talkington and Robert Wood, ushers, completed the wedding party. A reception was held at the Northrop Recreation club, Hawthorne, and the couple honeymooned at Big Bear.

The bride was educated in Chicago, Ill., and graduated from Torrance High school in 1953. She spent 1½ years at El Camino college as a music major and is now employed at Northrop Aircraft Inc., Hawthorne.

Victor Esposito, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Esposito, 823 Century blvd., Los Angeles, graduated from high school in New York State in 1948.
