NINE-HOLE COURSE

The newest nine-hole day and night-lighted golf course in the harbor area officially opened this week. John LeClair (r), course manager, demonstrates form and shots of golf course architect William S. Bell (l) and Jean G. W. Macdonald, Hacienda hotel manager. The cute caddie is Mary Kaye Lloyd.

BURGLARY SUSPECT CAPTURED

Richard T. Lloyd, from Gardena, a small (5-foot, 145 pound) burglary suspect, was captured Saturday, February 2, after taking refuge under a house.

He crawled under the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Romero, 17234 Crenshaw Blvd., after police officers Jim Foster and Tom Pattishall saw him drop a metal box from a gas station at 17330 Crenshaw Blvd.

Lloyd, 22, emerged from the house when a tear gas grenade and shell were fired into the 1 1/2-foot high enclosed area by Det. Sgt. Ted Morris.

9-Hole Golf Course Open

The newest Harbor area golf course opened this week at the San Pedro Hacienda hotel. John Le Clair, course manager, stated that the 1207 yard, three-par course has tricky greens, both slow and fast.

The shrub and tree-lined fairways will constitute a rugged course and the ravines on either side will make it rough for golfers with a hook or overslice.

The course will be open to the public from early morning until 10:30 p.m., with moderate green fees.

An interesting sidelight is that this course is the first-one in this area to have automatic lighting and an automatic sprinkling system, it was pointed out.

Frank Abbott, Silent Screen Star, Dies

Silent screen actor and Los Angeles pioneer Frank Abbot, 78, died Saturday, February 2, at Harbor General hospital after being stricken at his home, 3306 Dalemead st. His parents, William and Mercedes Abbot, built the Merced theater next to the old Pico House, Los Angeles, in the late 1860's.

Abbot was Past Commander of Charles A. Lindbergh Camp of the United Spanish War Veterans, a member of the Military Order of the Purple Heart and of the Native Sons of the Golden West. He was also a 30-year member of Elks Lodge 99.

He leaves his widow Gertrude and two daughters, Mrs. Cecilia Hill and Mrs. Frances Cain, both of Los Angeles. He also leaves six grandchildren.

Talking About The Weather

By MARK EUBANK
The month of January brought Torrance 3.76 inches of rain. The maximum temperature for the month was 77. The minimum was 28. These figures are near normal for January.

February should see above normal precipitation and below normal temperatures. The normal precipitation for February is about 2 inches. The normal temperature is around 53.

Last week Torrance had no rain. The high temperature for the week was 74. The low was 29. The maximum wind speed was 15 mph.

One year ago today it was clear and cool. The high temperature was 77. The low was 33. The previous night Torrance had a wind storm. The guests of wind reached 45 mph on some occasions.

Today's available workers are looking in the Torrance Press classified section. The advantages of job-openings told there will help fill vacancies fast. Dial FA 8-2345 today.
