IT'S TIME

Gaye Wilson, Miss Torrance, had the time of her life last week end modeling the timeliest bathing suit in the world with its $12,500 worth of gold watches. Enjoying every minute of it was Delos Nadeau of Allen Jewelers, 1321 Sartori. The event: Gruen's new Super-G line of watches. Even the Thunderbird's enjoying it.—Press Photo.

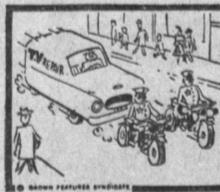

THE WORLD OF 1967

Winner in the Torrance Lions club speech contest is Ron Hargrove who is being congratulated by Abe Robinson, club president. Topic was "My Place in the World of 1967." Runners-up were Bill Morgan and Ollie Lessin.—Press Photo.

2 Torrance Men On TV Adventure Program Tonite

One of the most unusual and authentic adventure films ever shot, "Izalco Roars," showing the actual spewing of tons of tremendous boulders plus true tape-recordings of one of the world's most famous volcanos, will be screened for the first time on TV February 28, in the initial half-hour of "I Search for Adventure," KCOP, Channel 13, at 7 p.m.

The authentic tape-recordings of the sound of Izalco erupting will be used tonight in connection with the action films. Henry Young and Jack Pugley of Torrance, the two men who captured the wide-acclaimed shots of volcanic Izalco in El Salvador, will be on hand to narrate their film. They climbed higher and stayed longer on Izalco than anyone else in recorded history in order to obtain their pictures. Izalco has been erupting three to four times per hour for the past 170 years. A dynamic eruption, with huge clouds of gasses and smoke, achieving almost the same mushroom shape of the A-bomb, occurs every four or five years.
