Mmes. Helen Wilson and May-belle Spencer will be the hostess for the evening.

Memorial Cancer Crusade Scheduled For April 10

Fifty thousand citizens of Los Angeles county will join hands April 10 in a mass memorial to someone each has lost to cancer.

The occasion will be a Memorial Crusade, part of the American Cancer Society's 1957 educational and fund raising crusade against cancer. Communities throughout the county will participate in the special event, according to Robert Jahn, South Bay Area chairman.

During the three hour life-saving effort Memorial Crusaders hope to reach every home in the county to deliver life-saving facts about cancer and ask for contributions to help fight cancer.

Jahn asked citizens of Torrance who would like to crusade to call co-chairmen Mrs. Joe Banks, 22315 Eastwood ct., Torrance; Southwest Torrance unit, Mrs. Donald Kane, 5014 Mendora dr.; Mrs. E. S. Kar-low, 1971 Middlebrook rd., south bay area residential chair-man.

Honorary Memorial Crusade chairman for the county is Mrs. Jean Hersholt whose husband, the famed actor, died of cancer last year.
