

Beau Jardin Club Hears Nurseryman

A regular meeting of the Beau Jardin club was held at the home of Mrs. Robert Hill, 22403 Redbeam ave., with Mrs. Robert Hill and Mrs. Donald Drorbaugh as hostesses.

The program of the evening was a talk by George Schmidt, nurseryman. His speech entitled "Soil and Its Phases" described the process of decomposition and gave ideas on soil conditioning. A question and answer period followed.

Mrs. Kenneth Moe, conservation chairman, gave a report on her tour with Ranger C. M. Stevens of Angeles National forest on February 21. Mrs. Moe escorted Ranger Stevens to Sepulveda, Anza, Sealside, and Meadow Park Schools where he showed films to illustrate a ranger's work in conservation.

A contest was held by Mrs. William Adkins, horticulture chairman, on floral arrangements. Mrs. Kenneth Harmon won with a Chinese Lantern flower set up in picture form with a bamboo background.

Door prizes were won by Mrs. John Blair and Mrs. Lee Helman.

Present at the meeting were Mrs. William Adkins, John Beattie, John Blair, L. D. Burt, John Carribeau, William Cressy, Donald Drorbaugh, Kenneth Harmon, Robert Hill, Kenneth Moe, William Singery, and Fred Worgul. Guests were Mrs. George Schmidt and Mrs. Lee Helman.

The next meeting of the club will be held March 13 at the home of Mrs. Cressy, 22414 Fairside ave., with Mrs. John Regan and Mrs. Fred Worgul as hostesses.

Northcutt-Conway Vows Recited At Nativity Church

Miss Barbara Joyce Northcutt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Northcutt, 2600 Cabrillo, walked down the aisle of the Nativity Catholic church, Saturday, March 2, on the arm of her father to marry William Allen Conway.

Father Thomas Glynn performed the double ring ceremony before an altar banked with white stock and gladioli.

The bride wore a distinctive gown of chantilly lace over taffeta with a long chapel train. Her fitted bodice featured pearls around the high neckline, and long, pointed sleeves. Her finger-tip illusion veil was held in place by a satin and lace crown and she carried white carnations.

Mrs. Charles Northcutt, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a green lace and taffeta dress and carried a cascade of pink carnations. Bridesmaids Miss Celeste Herbrand and Miss Sally Bridgeman wore orchid taffeta and lace and carried yellow carnation bouquets. They all wore matching net hats.

Little, four-year-old Pamela Joyce Northcutt, the bride's niece, wore a white, full-length ruffled net over taffeta dress and carried a basket of pink and white roses as the flower girl.

Jack Callahan, best man, and ushers Charles Northcutt, brother of the bride, and Tom Siciliano completed the wedding party. The bride's mother chose a pink chantilly lace and taffeta dress and wore an orchid corsage.

Soloist Frank Algarme sang "The Lord's Prayer," and "Ave Maria," accompanied by Minnie McConlogue, organist.

After a reception at the Nativity Church annex, the couple left for a honeymoon in Oregon, Montana and will live in Aberdeen, Md., where the groom

MISS DONNA MARIE HALL BECOMES MRS. ROBERT L. FEES SATURDAY

In an impressive double ring ceremony, Saturday, March 2, Miss Donna Marie Hall married Robert Lowell Fees at St. Andrew's Episcopal church. Rev. Hugh R. Percy officiated.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Hampton, 3433 229th pl., was given away in marriage by her step father. Her beautiful full-length wedding gown was of white tulle over white satin with a high circular neckline and long, pointed sleeves. Her illusion veil was held in place by a pearl coronet and she carried a bouquet of white carnations with a white orchid corsage in the center.

Matron of honor Mrs. Donna Hall, and bridesmaids Janet Hall, sister of the bride, and Lynn Peet, wore formal length dresses of pink, yellow and blue, respectively with petite lace bolero jackets. They carried bouquets of carnations to match their dresses.

Best man was Jack Fees, brother of the groom. George Clemmens and Bennie Watson ushered the guests to their seats.

Sandra and Debra Hampton, twin sisters of the bride, wore pink tulle gowns as flower girls. They carried baskets of pink rose petals. Randy Higgins, ring bearer, completed the wedding party.

The bride's mother was dressed in pink nylon, a matching duster and white accessories. Mrs. Fees, the groom's mother, wore a tangerine dress with a beige duster and beige accessories. Both mothers wore white camellia corsages.

A reception followed immediately at the parish hall. Mrs. Delores Johnson, the groom's sister, took charge of the guest book.

For her going-away outfit, the bride chose a mint green, two piece ensemble with a white bolero jacket and white accessories.

The bride is a 1955 graduate of Narbonne High school and is presently employed at General Telephone co., Redondo Beach. The groom, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Fees, 1827 Reynosa dr., graduated from Torrance High school in 1953 and is stationed in San Diego with the US Navy for three years.
