Torrance Gets Private Investigator

Torrance, the All-America city, now even boasts a private eye.
His name is W. K. Kaps, who opened the W. K. Kaps Detective Bureau recently at 1329 Sartori (in the old bank building).
Kaps was formerly an instructor in self-defense and disarming at the police academy in Oklahoma City. He also worked as an adjuster with the Auto Club of Southern California.

His work has ranged from removing skunks from an ice box—odorlessly to arresting a police officer in Oklahoma City for armed robbery.
His services include civil, domestic and criminal investigation, as well as personal body guard service. He is licensed to do business as a private investigator, insurance adjuster and private patrol operator.
Transactions are handled strictly confidential. Working with him are male and female investigators and under-cover operators. He has lived in this area since 1951.

Mounties Win First Place
The Torrance Mounted Police took first place in a Sunday parade at Quartz Hill.
The group, directed by Asst. Police Chief Percy Bennett and led by Lt. D. C. Cook, won over 100 entries in the march.

$20,000 FOR HOSPITAL
Torrance plant manager, C. N. Rucker, of the Carbide and Carbon Chemicals co., signs a check for $20,000, Carbide's donation to the Little Company of Mary hospital to be erected here in Torrance. Sam Levy, general campaign chairman, and G. L. Revell, industry committee chairman, accept Carbide's donation on behalf of the hospital. The Torrance area is in critical need for hospital facilities and the proposed 150-bed hospital will aid materially in the hospital bed shortage in the South Bay area.

30 FLAGS FLYING OVER CITY

Thirty replicas of the famous "All-America City" flag are flying over all public schools, parochial schools and city buildings in Torrance due to the civic pride of a number of Torrance industries, business firms and individuals, it was announced by President A. E. Thompson of the Torrance Chamber of Commerce.
Those who donated to the drive, headed by Mayor Albert Isen, Planning Committee Chairman Bert Lynn, Chamber Director J. H. Paget and chamber officials, were: Torrance Lions' club, Torrance Woman's club, Bert Lynn, Sam Levy, Mido Products, Torrance Sand and Gravel, Leo H. Sidebotham, Bank of America, Business and
