

MARY FRANCES GARDNER MARRIES LARRY DEWAYNE JOHNSON HERE

On Friday, March 15, Mary Frances Gardner became Mrs. Larry DeWayne Johnson at the Narbonne Avenue Baptist church, 9 p.m. Rev. Robert Wells officiated during the double ring ceremony.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mrs. Molly C. Auld, 21164 S. Western ave., and Robert T. Gardner, Oklahoma City, Okla., was given away in marriage by her father. She wore a stunning wedding gown of lace over satin distinguished by a ruffled bustle. The lace bodice featured a circular, scalloped neckline with long pointed sleeves. Her fingertip illusion veil fell from a coronet of flowers and seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of stephanotis and a white orchid.

Betty Lee Boyd, maid of honor wore a pale green, chiffon-over-taffeta dress and the two bridesmaids, Linda Louise Thayne and Jeannette Marie Wright, were dressed in pale orchid and pale pink. All attendants carried white carnations. Margaret Louise Burton, flower girl, wore a yellow dress, and she carried a white basket with yellow flowers.

Best man was John Warren Lane, George Gardner, brother of the bride, and Bill Shuffield ushered approximately 150 guests to their seats. Little Steven Jones completed the wedding party as ring bearer.

Mrs. Auld chose a blue lace-over-satin dress for her daughter's wedding with blue and white accessories. The groom's mother, Mrs. Johnson, wore a dress of pink lace and crepe with pink and white accessories. Both mothers wore white gardenia corsages.

At the reception held at the church Mrs. Louis Burton was in charge of the guest book. The couple then left for a honeymoon at Corona Del Mar.

Both the bride and groom are graduates of Narbonne High school. The bride works for her mother at Molly's Cleaners, and the groom, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Miles E. Johnson, 1039 Cary ave., Wilmington, is in the US Navy.
