Dance Slated

A fund-raising dance has been scheduled by the North Torrance Little League Auxiliary, proceeds from which will go towards Little League activities. The dance will be held April 27 at the Rhythm Dance academy in Lomita, according to Mrs. Joe Sorenson and Mrs. Art Charron, ways and means co-chairmen.

Walt Templin, Don Heaney, Dean Woodward, John D'Ornelas, Fred Harris, Harley Lynch, Frances Goulart, Coretha Timko, Gloria Frank, La Verne Sevier and Lois Evans.

Stylish Reflection

Mrs. W. J. Johnson, 5025 Laurette, is on the committee for the Fashion Show tonight, 8 p.m., at El Camino college. She primps before a mirror at Levy's department store, Torrance, in a jeweled patio-cocktail cotton dress to be worn in the show. All clothes have been donated by Levy's for the "Around the World in Eighty Days" fashion show presented by the faculty wives. Mrs. Johnson's husband teaches English at the College.—Press Photo.

Jewish Center To See Films On California

A regular membership meeting of the Gardena Valley Jewish center will be held on Tuesday, March 26, 8:30 p.m., at the center, 14725 S. Gramercy place.

Colored films on "California, Then and Now" will be shown, according to program chairman, Irving Tarnow. "The films are very entertaining," declared Tarnow, "and should prove interesting to everyone."

Refreshments and a social hour will follow the meeting. All members and friends are urged to attend.

Lodge to Host Public Breakfast

Members of Trio Odd Fellow Lodge No. 495 will be host to a public breakfast on Sunday, March 24, from 8-12 at the Torrance Masonic temple, 2336 Cabrillo ave.

Noble Grand Charles Merryman, will be assisted by George Jennings, Andrew Branagh, Lester Walling and other Odd Fellows in the kitchen, and the Torrance Rebekahs will assist in the dining room.

Tickets may be obtained from the various members or may be secured at the door.

All proceeds will go towards the Home for the Aged at Saratoga and the Children's Home at Gilroy.

Goal: To Save Lives

Actor Jeff Chandler and Mrs. Ella Schwartz, Torrance, Southern Section chairman of the 1957 United Jewish Welfare Fund campaign, confer on the UJWF drive now getting underway. Major objective of the campaign is the rescue of 100,000 Jews from Egypt, North Africa, and "Iron Curtain" Europe. Los Angeles County goal is $10,190,000.

Needlecraft Style Show March 22

A wardrobe of knit fabrics will be shown at a Fashion show, Friday, March 22, 2 p.m., at Cherie's Knit studio, 4152 Pacific Coast Hwy., WALTERIA.

Fashions will include a basic knit dress, simple sheath, bulky knit coat, short jackets, sweaters, capes, reversible stoles and dresses with floating panels.

Refreshments will be served by Mrs. R. D. McEwen, Lomita Eastern Star; Mrs. C. P. Kellogg, Optimists of San Pedro; and Mrs. B. J. McEwen, Torrance.

Some of the needlecraft articles that will be on display include: a dress of "symphonie"—a new cotton yarn that resembles lace in metallic colors; a "mink" stole which appears to be fur but is actually a wool fabric; cocktail dresses, bulky knit sweaters by Mrs. Barbara Flamm, WALTERIA; unusual designs in ski sweaters by Mrs. Kathleen Chambers, WALTERIA; a sweater set with open work design by Mrs. Vivian Cook, Torrance; basic dresses and sweater separates; beaded dresses; a three-piece cocktail suit by Mrs. Donna Milasewich of Torrance; a farm scene hooked rug by Mrs. Ellen Tretter, Lomita; an afghan by Mrs. Janice Vandegrift, Torrance; and many other intricately designed items.

Judging the garments will be Miss Liz Blackwell, west coast director of the Speed-O-Knit Home Knitting Institute; Mrs. Katherine Schloss, Reynolds Yarn co.; and William Bolce, Spinnerin Yarn co.

Some of the prizes offered will be a dress lot of "symphonie," a dress lot of Spinnerin Dress yarn, two bulky sweater packs by Bernat, a knitting needle kit by Boye Needle co., a Junior Miss Pfaff Sewing machine and several sock packs. All needlecraft will be on display through March 30.

OPEN MON., FRI., SAT. NITES 'TIL 9 P.M.
