

EXCHANGE VOWS

Janssens-Hathaway Rites Performed

It was an impressive evening ceremony at the Western Avenue Baptist church; Saturday, March 23, when Miss Diane Marie Janssens exchanged wedding vows and rings with Harry W. Hathaway Jr.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl W. Janssens, 1668 W. 213th st., walked down the aisle on the arm of her father. She wore a wedding gown of white Chantille lace over tulle net which featured a v-necked bodice and stylish, three-quarter pushup sleeves. Her head band which was star-shaped, embroidered with seed pearls, held her lovely illusion fingertip veil in place. She carried the traditional white bible complemented by a white orchid.

Miss Caroline Janssens, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor. She wore a yellow crystalline and taffeta dress. Miss Patricia Mitchell and Mrs. Robert Lenton, bridesmaids, wore dresses similar to the maid of honor's in blue. All the attendants wore matching satin shoes and head bands and carried pink carnation bouquets.

Ben Wallace carried out best man duties during the double ring ceremonies officiated by Rev. Walter Graham, Paul Clines, Robert, Lenton, and Richard Hallis ushered the guests to their seats.

Mrs. Janssens was dressed in beige with brown accessories, and the groom's mother, Mrs. Hathaway, wore a navy blue sheath with white accessories. Both mothers wore orchid corsages.

A reception was held immediately after the wedding at the Church Social hall. Mrs. Eloida Grubbs was in charge assisted by Mrs. Tom Eggleston.

The couple left for an undisclosed honeymoon destination. The bride wore as a going-away outfit a black sheath with a contrasting white collar and black patent leather accessories.

Both newlyweds are graduates of Narbonne High school the bride has recently been employed at the Bank of America. The groom, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Hathaway, 23709 Lucille ave., attended El Camino College and is employed at the Narbonne Food market. The couple will reside in Lomita.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding included the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Cook, from Phoenix, Ariz.

MARY ANN SLACK WEDS DANIEL L. FITZGERALD

Rings and vows were exchanged Sunday, March 24, at a candlelight ceremony that united Miss Mary Ann Slack and Daniel Lloyd Fitzgerald in marriage at the First Christian church, San Pedro.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer N. Slack, 2364 W. 230th st., Lomita, was escorted to the altar by her father where Rev. P. J. Furgeson performed the double ring ceremony in front of an altar banked with white stock, carnations and lilies.

She wore a gown of white lace over satin with a high necked bodice and long, lace sleeves. Her lace net fingertip veil was held in place by a crown embroidered with seed pearls. Her bouquet was a white orchid on a white Bible.

Mrs. Sally South, the groom's sister, wore a dress of yellow net and carried yellow carnations and lavender sweetpeas as the matron of honor. Miss Gail Horvat was the bridesmaid. She wore lavender and carried pink car-white lace gown and carried carnations and sweetpeas. Louise Markel, flower girl, wore a basket of pink roses. Best man was Danny Neil.

son assisted by ushers Danny Slack, brother of the bride, and Delbert Slack, cousin of the bride. Little Mark Markel was ring bearer.

A navy dress with white accessories and a yellow carnation corsage was worn by the bride's mother, and the groom's mother wore white with black accessories and a red carnation corsage.

An afternoon reception was held at the bride's home for 125 guests. Gloria Horbat was in charge of the guest book.

Mrs. Fitzgerald is a senior at Narbonne High school. Her husband is the son of Mrs. Belle Neilsen, Long Beach, and Mr. D. H. Fitzgerald, 25213 Woodward, Lomita. He graduated from Narbonne high in 1954 and is now stationed with the US navy at San Diego.
