FOUR BROWNIES FLY-UP AT PERRY SCHOOL

An ivy-covered bridge crossing a brook (mirror) and surrounded by fresh spring flowers as the rustic setting for the "fly-up" ceremony when four Brownies of Troop Number 1680 were invested as Girl Scouts last week at Perry School.

After each girl received her wings from Leader, Zetta Pederson, she crossed the bridge pausing long enough to wave good-bye to the Brownies. When all four girls had crossed, they were welcomed by the Girl Scouts and the investiture by co-leader, Dorothy Stout, followed.

Immediately after the festivities, each girl enjoyed a piece of cake which had been especially made and decorated for the occasion in the form of a Girl Scout doll.

Fly-ups were: Murleen Reeves, Cherry Wood, Sheila Jones, and Judy Elgersma. Intermediates welcoming fly-ups were: Coleen Kelley, Sharon Stout, Julie Freeman, Pamela Struble, Lonna Kirkpatrick, Susan Shimmin, Wendy Lee, and Karen Warner.

WOMAN'S CLUB THESPIANS PRESENT HILARIOUS COMEDY, 'FLASH OF RED'

"Flash of Red," a comedy for girls, was recently presented by the Torrance Senior and Junior Women's club, at meetings of both clubs.

The cast of characters alone is indicative of the hilarious outcome on the Woman's clubhouse stage. When the following "personages" get together, anything can happen, and did: a prominent society woman, an old maid, a young bride, a matron of a ladies' lounge, 2 shop girls, a housekeeper, a mysterious Russian and a store detective.

Cast in the comedy were: Mmes. Howard Altermatt, Mrs. Van Astor; William Montgomery, Miss Minnie Massey; William Rogers, Mrs. Elsie Smith; A. E. F. Ewalt, Florida; Robert Kerber, Sadie; William Gardner, Sally; Sid Gans, the countess Anova; and Joe A. Eisenbrandt, Miss Masters.

On the production staff were Mmes. William Boswell and Frank Kelley, directors; Dean L. Sears, prompter, Eugene Lenk, stage crew chairman; and John Schwartz, William Starr, Ray Lires, Richard Brundin, Richard Eipper, Kenneth Wyatt, Lee Allen and Robert Leech, committee.
