Ludolph - Carrigan Wedding Vows Exchanged Saturday

Miss Carol Ann Ludolph, lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ludolph, 1744 255th st., Lomita, became Mrs. Max Carrigan in an impressive evening ceremony, April 13, 8 p.m., at the Wilmington blvd., Assembly of God.

Miss Ludolph Marries
On Saturday, April 13, Miss Carol Anne Ludolph married Max Carrigan. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ludolph, 1744 255th st., Lomita.—Seeman Photo.

She was escorted down the aisle by her father to an altar banked with white stock where Rev. E. C. Williams and Rev. H. W. Ezell performed the double ring ceremony.

Her gown was an exquisite creation of chantilly lace over candlelight satin with tiers of tulle lace down the front and a long, graceful train. Her fingertip illusion veil was held in place by a lace crown and she carried a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis complementing a white prayer book.

Matron-of-honor and sister-in-law of the bride was Mrs. Robert Ludolph. She wore a maize crystalline dress and carried a bouquet of vanda orchids. In contrasting dresses of lilac crystalline were the three bridesmaids; Janice Mayer, cousin of the bride; Joan Martin and Marilyn Lowery. They carried pale yellow carnations.

Standing as best man was Jack Carrigan, the groom's brother. Ushers included Bob Ludolph, the bride's brother; David Holmer, cousin of the bride; and Arnold Mull, cousin of the groom. Judy Payne, the bride's niece, was the flower girl in a dress of maize crystalline.

Mrs. Ludolph wore light blue with white accessories for her daughter's wedding, and Mrs. Carrigan, the groom's mother was dressed in navy blue with white accessories.

After a reception at the church hall, the couple left for a honeymoon in Carmel and San Francisco.

The bride graduated from Narbonne High school and the groom is a graduate of Banning High school, Wilmington. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Carrigan, 1718 Neptune ave., Wilmington, and is employed at Shell Chemical corp.

The couple will live in Lomita.
