

Adult Girl Scouts Plan Area Day Camp June 17

The Adult Girl scouts of Central Torrance held a neighborhood meeting recently. Mrs. Ann Brigdon, new southern area director, was introduced by Mrs. Lee Stamps.

Prior to the meeting Senior Scouts Kiyoko Takeuchi, Janice Jackson, and Mariner Scout Carla Osterlind presented a program that is required for the Curved Bar Award.

The Area is planning a Day Camp on June 17, with Mrs. A. A. Krauszer, director, assisted by Mmes. William Marleau, Mrs. Krauszer was elected as Lee Stamps, O. O. Clayton, C. W. Wahl, E. C. Osterlind, Foster Kelly, and P. M. Crossman. Senior Troop No. 1299 will be the program aides. The number of girls accepted will depend on the adults available for group leaders.

All Scout Adults will be asked for a contribution for the maintenance and restoring of the Savannah, Ga., home of Juliette Low.

The Torrance Rebekah Lodge is sponsoring a bake sale April 19 from 10 a.m. to noon in front of the Gay Shop, Torrance.

the third delegate to the Los Angeles Representative council. A Tribute to Leaders luncheon will be held April 23 at the Torrance Masonic temple, it was announced.

Park Officials To Discuss Duties, Positions

Parks and recreation commissioners from the South Bay area will have an opportunity to present facts and feelings about their responsibilities as commissioners at the monthly meeting of District IX of the California Recreation society Wednesday, April 24. Among commissioners of the area slated to be on the panel, "The Commissioners Speak," are Mrs. Herma Tillim of Torrance.

More than 100 public recreation officials will be in attendance that night to hear the panel discuss the following subjects: 1) The Definition of Commission and Board and Its Duties; 2) The Position of the Commission in Relation to the Professional Working Staff; 3) How to Make Your Recreation Dollars Grow—Mutual Use of Facilities.

Student Wins Aircraft Firm Scholarship

Jerry Johnson, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil B. Johnson, 22809 Dobie ave., has been awarded a college scholarship by North American Aviation, Inc. It was announced today by L. R. Taylor, the company's Scholarship Committee chairman. Johnson will graduate in June from Narbonne high school, Lomita, and he plans to study engineering at UCLA. His father is a plant guard at North American's Los Angeles division. One of 10 winners of the 1957 scholarship competition for children of employees, Johnson will receive up to $650 a year for tuition and fees and an expense allowance of $400 per year.

California Bank Merges With Corona Bank

Frank L. King, president of California Bank, Los Angeles, has announced the merger of the Newport Harbor Bank, Corona del Mar, with California Bank. The merger was approved by shareholders of both banks and became effective at the close of business Friday, April 12, King stated. J. T. Van Dyke, president of the Newport Harbor bank, was named a vice-president of California Bank, H. L. Hetrick, cashier of the bank, was named an assistant vice president; and William D. Sexton, assistant cashier. The addition of the Newport Harbor bank as the Corona del Mar Office of California Bank brings the total number of California Bank offices to 59.

Restaurants Given Health Certificates

Sixty-three restaurants and school districts in Redondo Beach, Torrance, Palos Verdes, Hermosa Beach, Manhattan Beach, Gardena, and the nearby unincorporated areas are displaying new establishment certificates for food handling. The announcement was made by Dr. Benjamin A. Kogan, Torrance District Health officer. Food handler training is one of the programs of the County Health Department's Bureau of Sanitation. It helps some 5000 food service personnel a year, and is conducted at about 17 different locations in the county annually. Those attending receive the latest expert advice on methods of preparing and serving food in a manner that will protect both themselves and the public from food-borne diseases.

Participating from Torrance in the program are Mary's Little Lamb, Bonnie's Cafe, Lindy's, The Palm's, Fallon's Snack bar, National Supply cafeteria, Verdes Cafe and the Torrance Unified School district.

LOMITA PARK EASTER WEEK ACTIVITIES SET

They include a Teen club's weenie roast, April 18, 6 p.m.; a pre-teen bunny hop on April 19, 7 p.m.; and an Easter Egg hunt at 10 a.m. and a track meet at 1:30 p.m. on April 20.

Exchange Clubs Search For Talent

For the eighth consecutive year, the Exchange clubs of the State of California will sponsor a "Search for Talent" program as one of their major projects. E. J. Robinson, president of the Exchange Club of Torrance is announcing that the local club will participate as usual. The search is divided into two divisions: Junior division, under 14 years; and Senior division, 14 years of age or older. All contestants must enter through the local schools, either public, parochial, or private. Only elementary junior high and high school students will be eligible. Talent classifications will be instrumental, vocal, dancing, group vocalists, and novelty. Anyone interested in entering his child is asked to contact Wanda K. Stanford, chairman, as soon as possible. Eliminations will be held before a group of judges Saturday, May 4, in the Torrance American Legion hall, 10 a.m.
