

'Shades of Lavender' Tea Scheduled Friday by PTA

A "Shades of Lavender" tea will be held by the North High school PTA on Friday, May 3, from 2:30 to 4:30 p.m., at the school cafeteria.

Five hundred invitations have been extended to mothers of students graduating from the eighth grade and planning to enter North High in September.

The aim of the tea is to welcome each parent to the PTA to meet the executive board, the principal and the faculty members of the school, and to encourage parents to participate in secondary PTA work.

The serving table will be decorated in varying shades of lavender, carried out in netting, candelabra and spring flowers. Identifying name tags will be given to each person.

Chairman of the tea will be Mrs. William Sale, courtesy chairman. The planning committee includes Mmes. E. Tre-

Mrs. Donald E. Reierson
Martha Margaret Dunn became the bride of Donald Emmitt Reierson in solemn rites performed at St. Andrews Episcopal church on Sunday, April 28. The couple are honeymooning in Las Vegas, and plan to make their home in San Diego.

Vows Exchanged in Candlelight Rites

Miss Martha Margaret Dunn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Callison, 25568 Sonoma ave., became the bride of Donald Emmitt Reierson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Reierson, of San Diego, in a candlelight ceremony at St. Andrew's Episcopal church, on Sunday, April 28, at 7 p.m. Officiating at the wedding was Rev. Hugh R. Percy.

Escorted down the aisle by Hiram Callison, the pretty blonde bride wore an exquisitely hand-embroidered gown of ballerina length. The gown was fashioned from cloth bought by the bride's great-grandmother in China 50 years ago, and saved especially for such an occasion. Her finger-tip veil was secured by a flower-woven tiara, and she carried a cascade of stephanotis, orchids and bouvardia on a white prayer book.

Joan Smith attended the bride as maid of honor, dressed in a ballerina gown of pale green nylon. Bridesmaids Connie Reierson and Hazlett Gann were dressed alike in gowns of pale coral, matching accessories, and flower crowns. All three carried nosegays of tansman roses.

The bride's mother wore a shirtmaker dress of blue nylon, blue accessories and wore a white orchid. The bridegroom's mother wore pink nylon, with pink accessories, and a white orchid.

Attending the bridegroom were David W. Delano, as best man, and two of his friends from San Diego as ushers.

Some 150 guests were received at the reception given at the bride's home following the ceremony. A three-tier wedding cake, decorated with cupids and white and pale pink flowers, was cut by the bride.

The newly married couple are honeymooning in Las Vegas, and will make their home in San Diego, where the bridegroom attends San Diego State college, preparing for a career in law. The new Mrs. Reierson is a graduate of Torrance High school, class of '51, El Camino class of '53, and Los Angeles County Hospital School of Nursing, class of '57. She did nursing at General hospital for several months.

Beau Jardin Club Meets

A regular meeting of the Beau Jardin club was held recently at the home of Mrs. Fred Worgul, 22421 Redbank ave., with Mmes. Fred Worgul and John Regan as hostesses.

The speaker for the evening was Mrs. R. O. Young, Chairman of District 2A of the California Federation of Garden Clubs, Inc. Mrs. Young stated the purposes of federation, enumerated the numerous benefits, told of the philanthropic strivings and achievements, and also stressed it as a great source of learning.

As door prizes, a cedar tree was won by the guest speaker, Mrs. R. O. Young, and an azalea was won by Mrs. James Stadler. Refreshments were served. Present at the meeting were Mmes. John Beattie, John Carrievau, L. D. Burt, Donald Drorbaugh, Kenneth Harmon, Robert Hill, Kenneth Moe, John Regan, William Singery, Fred Worgul, and Albert Yackle. Guests present were Mmes. James Stadler, and R. O. Young.

The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. John Carrievau, 22544 Susana ave. on May 8, with Mmes. John Carrievau and Kenneth Harmon as hostesses.

IRIS SHOW SCHEDULED SATURDAY

The third annual Irish show will be given by the Centinela Valley Iris Society, in cooperation with the Los Angeles County Department of Parks and Recreation. The show will be held at Sportsman's park, Century Blvd. and Western ave., May 4 and 5. Time for the show has been set from 1 to 9 p.m. on Saturday, and from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. on Sunday.

DEADLINE APPROACHING

Don't Delay-Enter Today

Entries in the "Women of the Year" Contest, sponsored by the Torrance Press, must be in by May 15, so that the winners may be selected in time for the May 23 issue of the Press.

Any woman living within the circulation area of the Torrance Press, or contributing to that area in any way, will be eligible. Winners will be judged for outstanding work in the following fields: PTA, Social and Philanthropic, Business and Professional, Civic and Cultural, and Church Activities.

Not only will clubs and organizations be eligible to submit a candidate, but individuals not affiliated with any group may enter providing their contributions fall into one of the five categories.

Winners will not be restricted to work done this past year, but will be judged for outstanding work in their field at any time in recent years.

Final judging will be made by prominent women in the community, who will judge the contestants on the basis of a letter of recommendation written by the group or person nominating a candidate. These letters, which must reach the Press office no later than May 15, should be typewritten, and should describe the candidate's contributions, and reasons for considering her one of the "Outstanding Women of the Year."

On May 23, individual pictures and stories will appear in the Press, describing the winners and reasons for their selections, in the five fields. All winners will be guests of the Torrance Press at an invitational luncheon on that day, at which time trophies will be awarded.

If there are any questions regarding the divisions, or the contest in general, contact the Society Editor of the Torrance Press at FA. 8-2345.

EILEEN RUTH FOULGER WEDS RUSSELL SCRIVNER

Joined in marriage at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints on Friday evening, April 12, was lovely Miss Eileen Ruth Foulger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Foulger, 20606 Berendo ave., and Russell Scrivner, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Scrivner of Lakewood.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a full length lace wedding gown over white taffeta. A crown of lace and pearls secured her fingertip illusion bridal veil, and she carried two white orchids encircled by stephanotis.

Sister of the bride, Mrs. Kay Samson, acted as matron of honor. She wore a ballerina length pink chiffon gown, and carried a cascade of pink carnations. Bridesmaids Jon Ann Anderson, cousin of bride, wore a mint green nylon chiffon gown, and carried a corsage of green carnations.

Flower girls Janie Ann Samson and Jan Bushman, wore short lavender chiffon frocks.

Attending the bridegroom were Jack Bushman as best man, and Bob Zeidell as usher. Bishop Elbert S. Steele officiated at the marriage ceremony.

Organ music was provided by Virginia Greer, who played the wedding march, and accompanied soloist Dorothy Taylor, aunt of the bride. Miss Taylor sang "Because" and other wedding songs.

About 100 guests were present at the reception held in the church hall. In charge of the guest book was Betty
