Moose Lodge To Observe Family Night

The Torrance Lodge of the Loyal Order of Moose will observe "Family Night" with a dinner and dance at the lodge hall, 1744 Carson street, Saturday, May 18, starting at 6 p.m. Arrangements for the occasion are under the direction of George Clay, ways and means committee chairman; and William Griep, dance chairman. Dinner will be served from 6 to 9 p.m., and a dance will immediately follow. Clay announced that the public is invited to the event. Joe Radulovich and his orchestra will provide music for dancing.

Alter Realty Sales Told

Alter Realty and Insurance announces the sales of 3/4 of a million dollars from January 1 to April 1 with a total of 65 properties sold during this time through the Alter Multiple system, according to Lee R. Dawson, sales manager of the main office 1436 Marcelina ave. In order to furnish adequate services to their clients in this area, Alter Realty & Insurance has just purchased the real estate office operated by Hans P. Norby at 1715 Arlington ave., and has leased the offices occupied by Torrance Real Estate and Investments at 23850 S. Hawthorne ave., in WALTERIA. These offices are now operating as branch offices. The sales manager of the Arlington office will be Gladys Spray.

Republicans To Hold District Meet

All members and alternates of the Republican Central committee, members and associates of the Republican State Central committee, and heads of recognized volunteer Republic organizations of the 68th Assembly District have been invited to attend a meeting Thursday, May 16, 8 p.m., at the Hacienda hotel, San Pedro, for the purpose of organizing the 68th Assembly District Republican Coordinating council. Members attending from Torrance will be Frank S. Selover, William H. Tolson, Mary Ann Haslett, Elmer J. Rosse, and Thomas C. Brewer Jr.

Osteopaths To Construct Area Hospital

Election of officers and adoption of by-laws for the newly formed Harbor Osteopathic Hospital, Incorporated, marked the first step in a campaign opened yesterday to build a new Osteopathic Hospital to serve the entire harbor area. Glenn Wymore, San Pedro attorney was elected president of the newly formed Hospital group. Dr. George Wall of San Pedro was selected Vice-President; Dr. Bryce Pizey, San Pedro, secretary and Dr. Bowen Jenkins, of the Lomita, Harbor City and Rolling Hills area, treasurer. The officers were elected at a meeting of more than a dozen Osteopathic physicians and surgeons who represented nearly 60 osteopaths in the Redondo Beach, Torrance, Palos Verdes, Rolling Hills, Lomita, Harbor City, Wilmington and San Pedro sections. The newly adopted by-laws provide a board of directors numbering 25 persons, many of whom will be selected from church, civic, business and labor groups of the area, according to President Wymore.

PROPERTY OWNERS WILL MEET

Lomita Property Owners and Registered Voters inc. will meet Tuesday, May 21, 8 p.m., in the Little Theatre at Narbonne High school. Incorporation and annexation will be discussed. A wide-spread survey of Lomita has shown that the property owners, as a whole, are opposed to either incorporation or annexation.
