

Many Jobs for Volunteers At Harbor General Hospital

Volunteers are needed at the Harbor General hospital as clerks on the wards of all clinics, to relieve the nurses of clinical work for more active nursing.

Ward clerk duties include answering phones, discharging patients, sending telegrams, phoning relatives, graphing temperatures, checking supplies, and contacting clergymen. Hours are 9 a.m.-1 p.m. and 1-5 p.m. six days a week.

Surgery liaison workers are needed to keep relatives informed as to the progress and condition of patients in surgery, answer phones, send messages for doctors, run errands, and check supplies.

Contact Mrs. Marguerite McAllister, co-ordinator of volunteers at the hospital, for information.

Bridal Shower Given for Marilyn Powell

A personal bridal shower was given in honor of Marilyn Powell on Sunday afternoon, May 5, by her bridesmaids.

White bells and pink and white streamers decorated the ceiling, and gifts were placed under a large silver parasol covered with pink carnations. The wedding theme was carried out by serving heart shaped canapes and cake decorated with white bells and pink flowers.

Those attending were Mmes. Tucker, Hope Powell, Helen Pettit, Valeria Turner, Betty Mon-

BABY ARRIVES

Mr. and Mrs. Alva Lincir, professionally known as "Rosalee and Alva" of the School of Ballet in San Pedro, have become the parents of a baby boy, born April 24. The baby, who has been named Matt Gregory, has an older brother, Tommy, 14 years of age.

Don Fisher, Mrs. John Shriver, Mrs. Raymond Millhouse, and Mrs. Mary Waters.

A double ring ceremony was performed in the Garden Room of the Sheraton Town House, L.A., by Rabbi Arthur Bluhm of Amarillo, Texas.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Brown, 520 S. Burnside ave., L.A., wore an exquisite, Cahill gown of white embroidered organdy. The bodice was detailed the embroidered lace and she wore organdy mitts to match. Her organdy and lace cap held the finger-tip illusion veil in place and she carried orchids and stephanotis arranged on her mother's white Bible.

Attending the bride were her sisters, Mrs. Marvin Betnun and Mrs. Harvey Freeman. They wore matching pink organdy dresses and carried deep red roses. Sally and Irene Betnun, the bride's nieces, were flower girls.

Oscar Gompertz, the benedict's father, carried out best man duties, and Marvin Betnun, Harvey Freeman, and Werner Cahn were the ushers.

Mrs. Philip Brown, the bride's mother, chose a navy blue sheath dress trimmed in lace with beige accessories for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Gompertz wore a powder blue lace dress with blue accessories. Both mothers and Mrs. Sol Scher, the bride's grandmother, were presented cymbidium orchid corsages.

Immediately after a reception at the Town House, the couple left for their honeymoon and are now "at home" at 2503 Arlington, Torrance.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Harvey S. Freeman, sister and brother-in-law of the bride, from Detroit; Harry Z. Brown, uncle of the bride, from Detroit; Miss Eleanor Scher, the bride's aunt from Chicago; and Rabbi and Mrs. Arthur Bluhm, Amarillo, Tex.

The bride is a recent graduate of UCLA in political science where she was affiliated with Alpha Epsilon Phi sorority. The benedict also graduated from UCLA where he received his master's degree in English and was a member of Phi Beta Kappa. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Gompertz, 248 S. Alexandria, Los Angeles, and has been managing editor of the Torrance Press for the past 4 years.

Royal Neighbors To Celebrate Camp Birthday

Torrance Camp, Royal Neighbors of America, met on Tuesday evening, with Oracle Walker presiding. Deputy Gaston was an honored guest; Neighbors Bankston and Hartshaw of Gardena, were also visitors.

Plans were completed to celebrate the Camp's birthday on the third Tuesday, with courtesy officers from the various Camps of the South Bay district occupying the stations during the meeting.

A campaign program was outlined by Deputy Gaston. The Oracle appointed Neighbors Swanson and Disario as captains of two teams, with Neighbor Young as general chairman. This campaign for new members, and to have stay-at-home members become more active, will get under way at the next meeting.

In honor of Mother's Day, the Camp presented bouquets to Mmes. Della Moon, the oldest mother present; Floella Whitacre, mother of the most children, and Pat Young as the youngest mother.

During the social hour, refreshments were served by Neighbor Malloy and her committee.

PTA HEARS FOREIGN STUDENTS

Foreign exchange students, Christa Volkman, Vienna Austria, and Carl Hoybe, Copenhagen, Denmark, were guest speakers at the May 15 meeting of the Torrance Elementary PTA.

New officers for 1957-58 were installed by Mrs. Francis Stoekle. A $100 membership was given to Donna Walker, Torrance high school senior, who will be majoring in education at the University of California at Riverside. The scholarship was given in honor of D. Boone Kirks, school principal. A plaque to be hung in the school office was presented to Kirks with his name and the recipient's name engraved on it.

Today is the last day of the Kindergarten Round-up. A Spring "Fashion and Music Festival" will be held May 28, 7:30 p.m., in the school auditorium.
