

Neighbors Celebrate Anniversary

Members of Torrance Camp, Royal Neighbors of America, celebrated the 36th anniversary of the founding of the RNA in Torrance at their last meeting, with Oracle Walker presiding. The two living charter members, Bertha Brennan and Florence Christopher were given the grand honors, and presented gifts from the Camp.

Guest officers from various Camps of the South Bay district conducted the business of the meeting, with Mina Aitchison of Culver City accepting the gavel from Oracle Walker. All guest officers were presented personal gifts from the Torrance officers.

During the Social Hour a skit "School Days" was given, with members of Torrance Camp appearing as Juvenile Royal Neighbors. Musician for the entertainment was Susie Walker at the piano, and Dorothy Malloy, accordion. Wayne and Michael Malloy handled the drums, and Sophia Duncan played the musical bones. Alice Swanson acted as mistress of ceremonies.

A large birthday cake decorated in purple and white, the society's colors, was the main attraction on the refreshment table. Dorothy Malloy was chairman of the refreshment committee.

Guests were present from Gardena, Redondo Beach, Culver City, Santa Monica, Long Beach, Illinois and Michigan.

One new member, Charlotte Hurley, was given the obligation of the Society by the degree staff.

Married in Las Vegas

Mr. Howard A. Intermill and Mary Herman were married Thursday, May 9, at the Little Chapel of the West, Las Vegas.

LOCAL COUPLE MARRIED IN LAS VEGAS CHAPEL

White stock banked the altar of the Little Chapel of the West, Las Vegas, where Mary Herman married Howard Intermill, May 9, and provided a handsome background for the wedding ceremony. Rev. Thomas, J. Daly officiated.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll L. Herman, 1917 22nd st., was stunning in a white lace and chiffon dress accented by a wide white satin cummerbund. She wore a contrasting pink net veil and pink shoes and carried a colorful bouquet of pink roses on a white Bible.

Mrs. Sylvia Rushfeldt attended the bride in a dress of beige lace and wore a yellow chrysanthemum corsage. Harvey Rushfeldt was best man.

After honeymooning in Las Vegas for a few days, the couple returned to their new residence at 2214A Cabrillo. Both the bride and groom graduated from Torrance High School. He is associated with Shell Chemical and the bride is employed by Rubbercraft Corp. of Calif.

Teacher Honored After 35 Years

A "May DeBord Dalton Day" was held at Perry School on Friday, May 24, to honor Mrs. Dalton who has taught there for 36 years. Refreshments were served in the school cafeteria from 3-7:30 p.m. to the many guests who attended.

The guest list included Dr. J. H. Hull and his staff, members of the Torrance Board of Education, Principals, teachers and parents from all the Torrance schools. Many parents were former pupils of Mrs. Dalton who started teaching at Perry when there were but two rooms in the school.

Mrs. Dalton continued her studies through the years, taking extension courses at UCLA and USC. When she retires in June she plans to travel through the US and Canada.

Mrs. Betty O'Brian, 3rd

Grade teacher and Mrs. T. R. Jackson, PTA president, were in charge of arrangements for the event.

Mrs. Dalton began teaching when she was 19 at Tenino, Wash., and came to Perry School in Torrance in 1922. She has never missed a year of teaching since she began her long and successful career.

According to school principal John Strom, she has remained sharp professionally and has always been eager to learn more about teaching methods through extensive courses at local universities through the years.
