Recreation Expert to Address CC

Robert Gold, principal associate, in charge of the Southern California office of Louis J. Kroeger and Associates of Los Angeles will be the guest speaker at the regular monthly membership breakfast of the Torrance Chamber of Commerce on Tuesday, June 18, it was announced today by Co-chairmen Milton Hunter and Jack Phillips.

Gold will report on the Park and Recreational survey made by his firm for the City of Torrance. Since the report has been under attack from some official sources it is anticipated a large turnout will be present to hear Gold's talk. There will be a question and answer period following, Chamber officials said.

Gold, formerly an instructor at Harvard and now teaching at Los Angeles State college, received his education at the University of California and Harvard University.

He has held a number of important positions in his 15 years Public Personnel and Management experience, including staff work for Los Angeles and Placer County, Assistant Director of Personnel for the Office of Inter-American Affairs and for the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C., Director of Property Restitution Project
