DODGERS, TIGERS IN SPLIT

The Dodgers and Tigers divided their two games the past week, the Dodgers taking the first game 11 to 7 and dropping the second 7 to 3 on a four-run last inning rally by the Bengals.

The first game was a slugfest, each team garnering 10 hits. Glen Kunde got to the Tiger pitching for four of the Dodger hits, collecting two doubles and two singles.

Tim Roettger and Lance French accounted for two apiece for the losers.

Mike Appleby went the route for the Dodgers, getting the win. Roettger recaptured for the loss.

Three solid bingles by Roettger, Chuck Robinson and Jim Palumbo sparked the Tiger last inning spurge in a come from behind win.

Ronnie Rollins replaced Robinson after the latter gave up two Dodger runs in the first inning to take the victory. Glen Kunde was the victim.

PIRATES REMAIN IN 2ND

The Pirates remained in second place, two and one-half games behind the leading Giants, by downing the Red Sox twice, 2 to 1 and 13 to 2.

Tom McCune bested the combined efforts of Johnny Keyes and Jimmy Walters, Keyes the loser, by holding the Sox to just two hits.

Steve Wirtz, Pirates big slugger, hit in the first run in the initial inning. The winning run scored on a walk to Jeff Nicholson with the bases loaded.

The Sox scored their lone run on an overthrow by the same player.

The second victory by the Pirates was the result of heavy hitting, led by the big guns Wirtz and Dick McGuire who both clouted home runs, McGuire's with the bases crammed, fellow Pirate Steve Wirtz picking up the win. This time Keyes and Walters could not contain the bats of the victors.
