

Recreational Facilities Offered at Local Schools

ing, dramatics, equipment play, field trips, hobbies, horseshoes, movies, music, nature activity, parades, social dancing, softball, song fests, square dancing, story telling, tournaments and volleyball.

All parks will remain open

pl. demolishing a front wall of a house.

Asleep in a crib just behind a shattered wall was 3½-month-old child, Marguerita Alice Pussey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pussey.

Despite the fact that the wall was shattered, the child was unhurt.

The only object that fell into the crib was a miniature statue knocked from an overhead shelf.

Putting Children To Bed
The Pusseys were putting their four other children to bed at the rear of the house. They told police that they thought an explosion had wrecked the front room.

The Collins' family was watching TV when the car roared into their front porch, ripping out two pillars.

Patrolmen said witnesses told them that McDermed's car had been seen a few minutes before the accident traveling at extreme speed down Western ave., where the driver was attempting to entice fellow motorists into an impromptu race.

Constable

In some towns and villages, a constable is an officer who has limited judicial power, and functions to preserve peace. He may have additional duties such as those of tax-collector.
