Harbor JC Classes Will Start July 1

Registration for the six-week summer session at Harbor Junior College will be held on Friday, June 28, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., and from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. J. Reyburn Hatfield, Dean of summer sessions, announced today.

All courses are tuition-free, carry regular college credit, and will be offered during the hours from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m., Mondays through Fridays. No admission tests or transcripts are required for summer session attendance. Any person who is a high school graduate, or is 18 years of age or older may attend.

Over 75 courses are being offered in the seven divisions of the college. Included among them are such courses as business mathematics, calculating machines, printing, engine technology, typewriting, architectural drawing, elementary algebra, plane geometry, slide rule, drawing and painting, English fundamentals, speed reading, public speaking, theater arts, health education, chemistry, physics, general psychology, political and social history of the United States, and many others.

Counselors will help students plan their programs during registration and will be available during the entire summer session. Recreational equipment and facilities will be provided, and picnics and outings are planned.

A complete schedule of classes may be obtained by calling at the college, 1111 Figueroa Place, Wilmington.

New Rifle Course For Teenagers

National Rifle Assoc. of America Basic training with .22 caliber rifles will be available on the San Pedro Police target range on Saturdays at 11 a.m. Miss Ann Frickman, NRA Certified Rifle & Pistol instructor announced today. Girls and boys 12 to 18 years of age inclusive will be enrolled by a parent or Guardian for Hunter Safety training and the rifle six week course beginning June 29.

The course of instruction includes Safety rules, nomenclature of rifles and shotguns, and of ammunition, correct sight picture, trigger squeeze, use of the sling, breath control, calling the shot and prone, sitting, kneeling and standing positions on the firing line.

Each student must have the use of a .22 caliber bolt action rifle. Ammunition may be purchased at the range. All official NRA Targets are furnished by the Instructor. California Department of Fish and Game material is given every student during the first five hours of hunter safety training qualifying the youngster for a hunting license.

Interested students and a parent to enroll them should be at the range at 11 a.m. to enroll.
