

'Wild West Days' Theme Of Aquacade Friday Night

The second annual Torrance aquacade, sponsored by the Torrance Recreation Department, will be presented on Friday, July 26, at 8 p.m. The aquacade will be held at the Victor E. Renstead Plunge located at 3331 Torrance Blvd., at the new civic center, is open to the public, free of charge.

This year the aquacade revolves around the theme of "Wild West Days." The program is basically about Indians and a group of settlers on their way to California.

Program

Following is the program that will be presented in conjunction with the wild west theme:

The program includes:

- 1) "Wagon Wheels" sung by the entire group of settlers; 2) Mickey's Modern Dancers; 3) "Along the Navajo Trail," sung by the settlers; 4) Water Ballet; 5) "Buttons and Bows," sung by Carol Armstrong; 6) "River of No Return," sung by Diana Cook; 7) Noble Spees and His Square Dancers; 8) "Indian Love Call," sung by Ariel and Diane Bybee; 9) Mickey's Modern Dancers in their presentation of the "Ritual Fire Dance;" and 10) "Bury Me Not on the Lone Prairie," sung by Sherwood Tiernan. Following this part of the tests between the settlers and Indians and will include: a swimming relay race; canoe tilting; diving for weights; canoe race; and stunt diving. "Pass that Peace Pipe" will be sung by Shella Hogan. The grand finale will consist of dancing and singing on land and a water ballet to the song of "Wagon Wheels."

An added attraction to the program will be a view of the girls who are participating in the Miss Torrance contest.

Sisters Re-united

A local housewife, Mrs. Gabrielle Bishop, 22036 Anza ave., was recently reunited with a sister whom she had not seen for more than 25 years.

Mrs. Bishop was separated from four sisters when she was 5 years old, after her mother died, and had never heard from her sister, Mrs. Norman Ledbetter, of Ojai, since that time.

Through the years she had been able to contact the three other sisters, Mrs. Betty Mae Lawrence, of Los Angeles, Mrs. Virginia Bales, of Inyokern, and Mrs. Dorothy Rontani, San Francisco, and she continued to try to find Norma. She finally called the Children's Home Society in Los Angeles, where she and her sister had been placed when their mother died, and with the help of officials there was finally able to locate her.
