

Nike Experts Available For Talks

Social, civic and community organizations in the San Pedro-Torrance area on the Army's NIKE missile system can now request speakers from the 47th AAA Brigade Speakers Bureau. Captain Olin M. Hardy, Brigade Information officer announced today.

"Our speakers are equipped to provide anything from a 30-minute luncheon program to a one-hour dinner talk," the captain said. "The topic will generally be 'NIKE in the Defense of Los Angeles.'"

Included with the talk will be a demonstration firing of a model NIKE missile at a model air-raid target, and the presentation of a film, "NIKE in the Defense of Organizations desiring speakers should contact the 47th Brigade Information Office, Fort MacArthur, California. He added that about two weeks advance notice is normally needed to definitely schedule a program.

Interstate Indemnity Company's Safety Trailer

Over $50,000 has been spent in equipping this trailer with the most up-to-date psycho-physical testing devices. It will be on display at Longren Aircraft company, next week, in connection with a safety program just launched there. The public has been invited to use the trailer.

Local Residents Invited To Use Safety Trailer

"Safety is an attitude and I want my people to have it," stated Hampden Wentworth, president of Longren Aircraft company, inc.

"This is why we have requested the Interstate Indemnity company to bring their 40-foot safety trailer to our facilities. With the new safety program we have launched at Longren, the interest among the people at Longren will be very high."

Over $50,000 has been spent in equipping this trailer with the most up-to-date psycho-physical testing devices. Some of the devices are for the determination of visual acuity, peripheral vision, distance judgment and depth perception, dim light vision and glare recovery, complex reaction tester, steadiness tester as well as many other devices for the testing of attitude and awareness.

Thousands have been tested by similar devices in the years that Interstate trailer has been on the highways in the western states. The theme is, "Develop Your Attitude and Awareness on the Job and on the Highway."

"We believed that our friends and neighbors might also be interested in getting a little safety education and test them-
