Famed Art At Laguna Festival

The world's heritage of great paintings and sculpture comes to life under the stars at Irvine Bowl in Laguna Beach nightly, beginning July 20 through August 18.

More than a million requests during the past 10 years through letters and comment cards have been for a presentation in the "living pictures" of the finest works of the master painters and sculptors.

In keeping with the festival tradition, the spectacular beauty of the Pageant of the Masters will be enhanced with orchestral background and stimulating commentary.

Fascinating highlight of the Festival of Arts is the puppet show presented by the internationally famed Daniel Lloids.

Four festive weeks bring a cultural carnival for the enjoyment of all with gaily decorated booths to house 200 displays of the work of Laguna artists and craftsmen.

The unique, the modern, the conservative, the provincial — in ceramics, handicrafts, wood carving, sculpture, weaving, copper work, painting in oil, water color and other mediums — all are part of the Festival of Arts.

Free-for-all art classes for youngsters are given daily.

Places Third In Competition

'LIGHT UP THE SKY HELD OVER

Heavy demand for tickets to the current production of Acent theater—Moss Hart's comedy, "Light Up the Sky"—has resulted in the little theater group holding over the play for one week, with presentations scheduled for Aug. 8, 9, and 10.

The comedy, which brings out the zany antics of off-stage show people, will be presented this week on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, August 1, 2 and 3, at the Torrancia Playhouse, El Prado and Cabrillo aves.

In the cast are Dr. Malcolm Sagenkahn, Patricia Gray, Julie O'Neil, Kay Kellogg, Charles Brannen, Lee Oberholzer, Warren Lavender and Ed Cooke.

Honor guest for this Friday's performance will be "Miss California of 1956," Shirley Gardner Witty, who now is residing in Torrancia.

Director Charles Gray, who staged the present production, announced that tryouts will be held at 8 p.m. Monday and Tuesday, August 5 and 6, for "The Happy Time," the group's next presentation.

There are parts for five men, four women and a boy and girl, both about 12 years of age.
