

Center Plans New Addition

One more building, other than the 355,000 square foot May Company Department store, will be erected at South Bay Center, 174th st. and Hawthorne Blvd., after the grand opening celebration Thursday, August 22.

The present site of the bus terminal turnaround will be utilized for a 20,000 square-foot building for smaller stores. The terminal is at the south end of the center cluster of buildings next to Randall's Shoes. It will directly behind the May Company.

Tentative plans call for completion of the building within the next two years, according to the Brody Investment Co., owners of South Bay Center.

King View Estates Now Open

King View Estates are located on the eastern slopes of Pelos Verdes Hills and offer some of the finest views in this area.

One-third to one and one-third acre estates, priced from $10,500 to $17,500, are available. Custom-built seven-room homes run from $40,900 to $47,500.

Each house is individually styled, and three model homes are now open for inspection. The sites offer a panoramic view of the harbor, with a full view from the lights of the harbor to the lights of the city.

There is no duplication of homes, which come with automatic dishwasher, garbage disposal, fireplaces, and three sliding glass doors.

To reach the homes, turn off Pacific Coast Hwy., go about four miles south on Western Ave. to 9th St. and turn right (west), continuing for about one-half mile to the beautiful new property.

Major Wyatt With Army Reservists

Major Ray L. Wyatt, 620 Madrid Ave., is one of 176 U.S. Army reservists, most of them from Washington and California, who are presently taking their annual field training at Fort Lawton, Wash., as faculty, staff and students in the Transportation department of the USAR school program. The summer school is being conducted by the Spokane USAR School.

USAR schools operate as an Army college and have departments of instruction corresponding to the various branches of the Army of which Transportation is one department. To complete a course, students must attend classes during the year, attend summer camps and pass necessary examinations.

Men Receive Basic Combat Training

Two soldiers from Torrance, Privates Robert W. Clark and John M. Stanton, are receiving basic combat training with the 2nd Infantry Division's 38th Regiment at Fort Lewis, Wash. Clark, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willard B. Clark, 17202 Palda Ave., is a 1957 graduate of Washington High School in Los Angeles.

Stanton, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Stanton, 1543 Marcelina Ave., is a 1953 graduate of Sacramento High School. He was formerly employed by the Veterans Administration in Los Angeles.

Pomona Fair Will Honor Torrance

Tuesday, September 17, will be "Torrance Day" at the world's largest fair—the Los Angeles County Fair in Pomona, according to President A. E. Thompson of the sponsoring Chamber of Commerce.

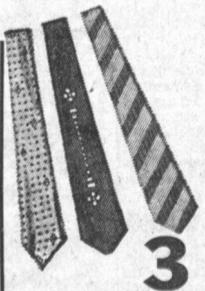

Highlight of the day will be "The Torrance" horse race, the winner of which will receive a trophy from the mayor and Thompson. The Chamber of Commerce will have its own information booth for local citizens journeying to the gala event.

Bus transportation has been arranged through Marshall Chamberlain, superintendent of the Torrance Municipal bus lines, who states that buses will leave at 9 a.m. and return at 3:30 p.m. Price for the round trip will be only $2, including price of admission to the fair. Reservations may be made by calling the Chamber of Commerce.
