Tomlinson-Ower United In Marriage August 23

The First Assembly of God church in Wilmington was the setting when Joy Ann Tomlinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Tomlinson, 25016 Andreo ave., Lomita, became the bride of Paul John Ower, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Clifford Ower, 176 E. 218th place.

The ceremony took place on August 23, at 8 p.m. Mr. Tomlinson gave his daughter in marriage and Rev. Lawrence Terry officiated at the service.

For her marriage the bride chose a gown of white lace and tulle over satin with V-neck and short sleeves, she wore elbow length gloves and a crown of daisies held the bridal veil in place. Her flowers were a cascade of pink roses and white orchids with pink streamers.

Lella Owen was maid of honors, bridesmaids were Dixie Pyle and Ludean Pearce, Linda Pool was the flower girl. All the bride's attendants wore white lace over pale blue taffeta, with blue taffeta hats, and carried pale pink carnations.

The bridegroom was attended by Don Evans, best man, and ushers, Brad Cooper and Archie Dawson. Jerry Ower, was the ring bearer.

Mrs. Ower attended Narbonne high and Mr. Ower attended Banning high school.

What's happened to mother's (or dad's) old, old racoon coat? The ones that haven't been cut up into Davy Crockett hats for the kids are now being sold, as is (meaning moth holes, ancient styling and all) at a mere $32 while they last! Who's buying them? The college crowd, as fast as they can snatch them up . . . and sometimes even Pop just for "auld lang syne." And the ones that haven't survived intact, or the new crop, are being proudly displayed as hats and even bags for Milady! That's all for now . . . for Fashion Fun.

Local Residents Enjoy Travel and Sight Seeing

The members of the executive board of the 186th Street School PTA have taken advantage of the summer vacation to travel and tour the country.

Mrs. James Ellis, president, accompanied by her husband and two sons, were guests of Mr. Ellis' family in Missouri. On their way home they took advantage of the historical points of interest to show their sons some of the beauty and wonder of the country.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Eisenbeiss and daughter, Melody, toured Northern California in a trailer; while the Billie Lewises also had Northern California as their vacation ground.

The Edward Pattons traveled to Illinois and Mrs. Walter Stewart and son, Stephen, visited with relatives in Oklahoma. Mrs. J. T. Evans, Jr., and Linda and Johnie, vacationed in their mountain cabin in Cedar Pines Park and finished their vacation with a visit to old friends in Bakersfield. The lure of the mountains affected the school principal, Miss Edith Engdahl, as she was the guest of Mrs. Lilla Boyer, 2nd grade teacher, at her cabin at Cedar Pines Park.

Other members of the 186th Street PTA spent their vacations at home but spent many wonderful hours at the beach, and taking their children to the many points of interest right here in the vacation land of the nation.

Expectant mothers' classes conducted by Los Angeles County Health department throughout the County can often do much to assist busy physicians, many of whom recommend that their prenatal patients attend such classes.

This comment was made by Dr. Roy O. Gilbert, Los Angeles County Health Officer, in announcing that the fall classes for prospective parents will begin in many of the County Health Centers next month.

More than 3650 soon-to-be mothers and fathers attended the classes conducted by the County Health department last year in 28 locations throughout its jurisdiction.

"The instruction given in the course in no way takes the place of early and regular prenatal medical care by physicians," Dr. Gilbert pointed out, "but is an educational service that offers additional information and aid in planning and care for the new baby."

There is no registration fee for this tax-supported service of the County Health department. Information as to time
