

PRESIDENT'S TEA HELD IN EL CAMINO PATIO

Nearly 200 faculty members of El Camino college, their wives, and husbands were the guests at an afternoon tea held in the north patio of the Campus Center prior to the opening of the fall semester Sunday.

Serving as co-hosts and hostesses with President and Mrs. Forrest G. Murdock were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Arfwedson of Manhattan Beach, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Harless of Los Angeles, and Mr. and Mrs. Merl F. Sloan, of Inglewood.

Sloan is director of student personnel at the college, where Arfwedson serves as director of business and Dr. Harless as director of instruction.

President and Mrs. Murdock and the directors and their wives received their guests in the beautiful outdoor setting of the patio. Each of the ladies wore an orchid corsage for the occasion.

Pouring were Miss Ciela Hammond of Gardena, president of the El Camino College Faculty club, Mrs. J. R. Black of Hermosa Beach, wife of the former president of the Board of Trustees, Mrs. Jack Dabbs of Torrance and Mrs. Hilar Ashley of El Segundo, wives of the present board members.

Assisting with the serving of refreshments at a beautifully appointed table were eight college students, gowned in lovely summer formal. They were the Misses Pat Fickett, Barbara Brown, Liz Bustamante, Penny Smith, Sandra Eddy, Lynn Smith, Sharon Sloan, and Jane Daiell.
